West Volleyball Team Drops South Brunswick

West Brunswick's volleyball team finished the season last week with a win over county rival South Brunswick and a loss at New Hanover.

The Lady Trojans defeated South Brunswick 15-13, 15-7, 15-10, last Tuesday in their final home match. Rebecca Hughes had 13 service points and Felicia Morgan added eight to lead West.

Host New Hanover beat West Brunswick 15-8, 15-8, 14-16, 15-10, in last Thursday's season finale. Hughes had 11 points and Madonna Gause had nine to pace the Trojans.

After winning two consecutive conference championships, the Lady Trojans finished this season 7-5 in the Waccamaw Conference and 12-9 overall.

"With us being so young and everything, the season went kind of like I expected it to go," West Brunswick Coach Brenda Council said. "We were definitely inexperienced and it showed."

In its first season in the Waccamaw Conference, Pender's Lady

Patriots won the league championship with a 12-0 mark and advanced to the state 3A playoffs.

South Columbus and East Columbus were the conference's two 2A teams to qualify for the state playoffs.
