

State Treasurer Wants To Reunite Brunswick Countians With $30,000

Janet Witter, come on down! The N.C. Department of the Treasurer has $5,879 of your money from the Manufacturer's Hanover Abandoned Property Department, and they want to give it back.

The treasurer is looking for Brunswick Countians entitled to nearly $30,000 in uncashed checks, unclaimed rent and utility deposits, forgotten bank accounts and insurance proceeds. The companies and agencies turn this property over to the treasurer's office, which is charged with returning the loot to its rightful owners.

State Treasurer Harlan Boyles said his office received more than $17.5 last year and, by providing newspapers with lists of the rightful owners, returned $2.7 million to 3,300 people.

Until it is refunded, the money is invested and the earnings remitted annually to the N.C. State Education Assistance Authority to be used for loans to worthy and needy North Carolina students in state-supported schools of higher education. Boyles said $7.7 million in net investment earnings was remitted to the SEAA this past July.

If your name is on the list below, write the N.C. Department of State Treasurer, Escheat and Unclaimed Property Program, 325 N. Salisbury St., Raleigh NC 27603-1385, or call (919)733-6876.

No time limit applies to inquiries or claims, and refunds will be made promptly when valid ownership is established, Boyles said.

Program Offers Head Start

LaShawnda Wyley, ShaKema Morgan, Henry Wyley and Courtney Grant are busy with "kitchen" chores in a classroom at Piney Grove Head Start Center during open house Friday. The center has relocated to the refurbished former Piney Grove School, where it operated temporarily in 1975 after a fire destroyed the first Piney Grove center. It will expand in fall 1994 to serve 80 children. Federally funded, Head Start offers education, health care, social services and parental involvement activities to give disadvantaged youngsters a pre-school boost. Open house featured speeches, music, volunteer recognition, a ribbon-cutting and social hour.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Two New Physicians Join Carolina Eye Associates Staff

Carolina Eye Associates has announced the addition of two staff physicians in its Myrtle Beach and Wilmington offices.

WESTRA RILEY

Dr. Igor Westra has joined the staff of the Wilmington Center, where he will specialize in retina and vitreous treatment and surgery. Born in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, Westra attended Dartmouth

Medical School in New Hampshire and completed an internship at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami, Fla., and a residency at the University of Alberta Hospitals in Edmonton, Alberta.

He joins Carolina Eye Associates from Portland, Oregon, where he completed a two-year fellowship in diseases and surgery of the retina and vitreous at Oregon Health Sciences University.

Dr. Shawn F. Riley will join the staff of the Myrtle Beach Center, where he will specialize in glaucoma surgery and care.

He is from Boston, Mass., where he recently completed his fellowship in glaucoma at Harvard Medical School and the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Born in Evanston, Ill., Riley graduated from Northwestern University and Rush Medical Coll. in Chicago. His internship and residency were done at Rush-Presb.-St. Luke's Medical Center, also in Chicago.

Carolina Eye Associates currently has centers at The Brunswick Hospital and ten other sites. Its Myrtle Beach center recently moved from Kings Highway to a larger facility on 48th Avenue near the U.S. 17 bypass.

Courses In Top 15

Readers of Golfweek magazine have voted Sea Trail Plantation's

Jones and Maples golf courses among North Carolina's Top 50.

In making the award, publisher Tom Stine said, "We firmly believe that the best courses are the ones that are held in highest esteem by the greatest cross-section of golfers. No doubt the so-called experts know their business, but golf is a game meant to be played and enjoyed by all levels of expertise. The fact that your course was selected as one of the best in the state—a state with so many excellent courses—is even more gratifying."

County Jobless Rate Drops In September

Unemployment in Brunswick County fell below 10 percent in September for the first time this year, according to figures released Friday the N.C. Employment Security Commission.

The county's jobless rate was 9.7 percent, ESC said, following an August rate of 10.7 and June and July rates of 13.7.

Graham County, at 10.9 percent, was the only county with a rate of 10 percent or higher. Orange and Currituck counties had the state's lowest unemployment rate in September at 1.9 percent.

The state seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 4.2 percent, a .4 percent decrease from the August rate of 4.6 percent. ESC analysts regard five-percent as "a near full-employment situation."

Seasonally adjusted unemployment rates eliminate changes which normally occur at about the same time and in about the same magnitude each year.

September jobless rates in the state's other oceanfront counties were: Pender, 5.1; Onslow, 4.1; Carteret, 3.9; Hyde, 4.3; Dare, 3.3; and Currituck, 1.9.

TOWN OF OCEAN ISLE BEACH NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING NOVEMBER 9, 1993

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT there will be a public hearing held in conjunction with the regularly scheduled meeting of the Town of Ocean Isle Beach on November 9, 1993 at 8:30 a.m. to consider the following amendments to the zoning ordinance:

(1) To amend Article V, titled "Uses by District," Section A "R-1 Single Family and Two Family Residential," Subsection 3, Table regarding building height restrictions and to amend Section B "R-2 Multifamily Residential," Subsection 2, Table regarding building height restrictions; Section C, Subsection 2, Table regarding building height restrictions; by adding the following footnote "a" to the column headed "Maximum Build Height Feet":

"a) the maximum height shall be increased to the minimum necessary to allow eight (8) foot high ceilings on two living area floors so long as the lowest living floor is constructed within one foot two inches of the required flood plain ordinance base flood elevation. Roof slope on structures allowed to be greater than 36 feet maximum height shall be no greater than a 5 and 12 pitch."

(2) To amend the height restriction for construction on the beach to permit a greater height in those instances set out in paragraph (1) above to a footage greater than 36' as is presently allowed, but limiting the overall height to a specific height, including, but not limited to, a figure of thirty-seven (37) feet through forty (40) feet or more.

All interested persons are invited to attend.
 Daisy Ivey, Town Clerk
