Bird Club To Hear Frank Nesmith November 17

Frank Nesmith of Sunset Beach, "Mr. Bird Island," will speak on the history and future of Bird Island at the November meeting of the Brunswick Bird Club.

Nesmith conducted tours of the island beach this summer on behalf of the Bird Island Preservation Society, a nonprofit organization working to raise money and gain support for public acquisition of the island as a natural preserve. Privately owned, Bird Island is located just west of Sunset Beach on the North Carolina-South Carolina border.

The Brunswick Bird Club meets Wednesday, Nov. 17, at Atlantic Telephone Membership Corp. on N.C. 130 West, Shallotte. Anyone interested in nature and the environment is welcome. For more information call Marcia Warring at 579-9474.

Kiwanis Organizes

The new Kiwanis Club of Southport-Oak Island was officially organized recently and meets weekly Tuesdays at 7:15 a.m. at Sea Captain Restaurant in Southport.

A charter night dinner is planned in January.

Officers of the group are Gloria Talley of Southport, president; Peter Wyckoff of Southport, vice president; Brian Station of Southport, treasurer; and Steve Heffner of Caswell Beach, secretary.

The new club is sponsored by the Wilmington Kiwanis Club. Member meet weekly for fellowship, inspirational programs and summary reports of club activities. Kiwanis' purpose is service to youth and the elderly, community and nation.

Some clubs sponsor Key Clubs in local high schools or Circle K clubs in colleges.

Membership is open to men and women who work or live in the Southport-Oak Island area. They may apply at any regular breakfast meeting or by calling Heffner at 278-1172.

Elder Care Focus

Care of the elderly will be the focus when the Calabash VFW Post No. 7288 Ladies Auxiliary meets Monday, Nov. 15, at 7 p.m., with a guest speaker and film on the program.

Speaking will be Virginia Bellamy, a retired public health nurse who serves on the Bruns. County Nursing Home Advisory Board.

The film that will be shown was created through the cooperative efforts of the Cape Fear Council of Governments and WECT TV in Wilmington. It is the first of its kind in North Carolina to be used for public education and training for caretakers of the elderly.

Veterans Day At VFW

Holden Beach Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 8866 members and ladies' auxiliary will hold Veterans Day services at the VFW Post home on Sabbath Home Road.

The program will begin at 11 a.m. Nov. 11. "The public is invited to help us honor all American veterans who have served in every war before and after World War I, to defend Democracy," said post spokesman Fred Dilley.

Services will be held rain or shine.

Waves To Meet

The Azalea Anchors, the local chapter of Waves National, will hold its next meeting at Shoney's, Oleander Drive, Wilmington, at 11 a.m. Nov. 13. Officers will be elected.

Membership is open to all former, retired and active-duty Navy women, Naval Reserve, Waves, Navy Nurse Corps, Coast Guard and women Marines.

For more information, call Annie Weir at (919)392-6033.
