Lung Assn. Has Golf Privilege Cards

Instead of giving a dozen golf balls or bag of tees to that golfer on your Christmas list this season, why not give something that will last the whole year?

The American Lung Association of North Carolina has started selling its 1994 Golf Privilege Card, which entitles the holder to reduced rates at 154 courses in North and South Carolina.

The card is good for 270 rounds of golf, either free or at reduced rates, and is valid Jan. 1, 1994, through Dec. 31.

Some courses have restrictions on when the card may be used during the year, and carts required at most clubs are not included as part of the Privilege Card, which costs $40.

Participating courses in Brunswick County are Brick Landing, Brierwood, Brunswick Plantation, Carolina Shores, Fox Squirrel, Oak Island, Ocean Harbour, Ocean Isle Beach, Olde Fort, Sandpiper Bay, The Gauntlet and The Pearl.

Wilmington courses included in the package are Duck Haven, Island Green Par 3, The Cape, Beau Rivage and Coastal Golf Center Driving Range. Grand Strand participants include Buck Creek, Myrtle West and Wedgfield.

Proceeds from the sale of cards benefit the American Lung Association. The death rate from lung disease—the third leading cause of death—has risen faster than that of any other major disease in the last 10 years except AIDS.

For information or to order, call the American Lung Association of North Carolina's Cape Fear Region office at 1-800-821-6205. Cards will be mailed in time for Christmas.
