THOMAS HILL presents Kay Coleman, Shallotte Middle School media coordinator, a gift of $200 from the Katherine Hill Peed Memorial Fund to purchase books about the coast for the media collection.

Peed Memorial Fund Endows Purchase Of Library Books

Proceeds from a fund established in her memory are allowing Shallotte Middle School students to continue sharing the late Katherine Hill Peed's love of the coast.

Last week Thomas Hill, Peed's son, presented a check for $200 to the Shallotte Middle School Library from the Katherine Hill Peed Memorial Fund.

The fund was established upon the death of Mrs. Peed on Nov. 1, 1991.

Mrs. Peed had taught for many years at Shallotte Middle School. At the time of her death, Thomas and her daughter Anna Katherine wanted to remember Mrs. Peed in a special way. Because of her love for the Brunswick County coast and her special interest in fossils and seashells, they established the fund. Monies from it are to be used for the purchase of books about the ocean, the coastal area and seashells.

Anyone who wishes to contribute to the Katherine Hill Peed Memorial Fund may do so at United Carolina Bank, where Linda Walters administers the fund.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Dinner For Others Thanksgiving

On Thanksgiving Day, the United Methodist Men of Little River United Methodist Church will serve traditional dinners free of charge from noon until 4 p.m. in the church's fellowship hall.

They invite anyone in the area who is homeless, experiencing financial difficulties, or who simply lives alone.

No carry-outs or home deliveries are available.

The church is on U.S. 17 at the traffic signal in Little River, S.C.

Aglow To Meet

Carolyn Nesbett of Southport will be guest speaker for the Southport Women's Aglow group on Saturday, Nov. 20.

The meeting begins at 10 a.m. at the Senior Citizens Center on Atlantic Street, Southport.

All women and teenage girls are welcome. For more information, call Bonnie Leonard at 754-6247.

Stan Smith At Chapel

The Rev. Stan Smith of Troy, pastor of the week, will deliver the message during the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday, Nov. 21, at the Holden Beach Chapel.

Smith is a former pastor of Camp United Methodist Church in Shallotte.

The interdenominational chapel is located on Rothschild Street across from Holden Beach Town Hall. A nursery is provided. Sunday school begins at 10 a.m.

Prayer Service Set

Brunswick County's Interfaith Council will hold its Thanksgiving prayer service Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. at St. Brendan's Catholic Church.

The service will be led by Father Francis Maloney.

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the service. Everyone is invited.

The church is on U.S. 17 about two miles south of Shallotte.

For more information, call 754-8544.

Ecumenical Service Set

A community ecumenical service for prayer and fellowship will be held Wednesday, Nov. 23, at 7 p.m. at St. Brendan's Catholic Church of Shallotte.

The Rev. Francis Maloney and parishioners will conduct the service, a time to focus on giving thanks to the Lord.

St. Brendan's is located on U.S. 17 south of Shallotte.

Shell Point Sale

Shell Point Baptist Church will hold a bake sale and yard sale Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19 and 20, beginning at 8 a.m. each day.

Donations are being accepted for the yard sale; those wishing to contribute should bring their goods to the church fellowship hall.

DID YOU KNOW ?

That Cemetery records reveal that of purchases made at the time of death...

Only 33%
are made by husbands

67%
are made by widows and children

Why should so many widows have to make these decisions alone?
