Local Divers Forming Scuba Club

Ever wonder about the world "down under?"

Local scuba divers and those interested in learning the sport are invited to attend an organizational meeting of the new South Brunswick Islands Scuba Club Wednesday, Dec. 8, at 7:30 p.m. at Holden Beach Surf and Scuba on N.C. 130 near the Holden Beach Causeway.

"A lot of people don't realize the opportunities for diving in this area," said club president Mark Saunders, who recently returned from a dive vacation in Cozumel, Mexico.

Organizers hope to plan day trips to local dive spots and longer excursions to Florida and the Caribbean. Inexperienced divers can also get information about instruction.

A light snack will be provided at the meeting.

For more information contact Saunders at 842-2553.

Waccamaw Sets Shoot

Waccamaw Volunteer Fire & Rescue will hold a turkey shoot every Saturday at 6:30 p.m. until further notice.

The shoots will be held at the station, which is located on Whiteville Road (N.C. 130 West) at Ash.

West Brunswick High School Booster Club says thanks!

Thank you to all who bought tickets to the annual Booster Club fund raiser. It was the best ever!

Congratulations to Billy Russ, Sr., winner of the 1993 Ford truck.
