Singing In The Season

The Missionaries of Holden Beach sing in the Christmas season as the Community Christmas Tree shines in the background. Friday's tree-lighting, sponsored by the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce, drew officials and citizens of Calabash, Sunset Beach, Ocean Isle Beach, Shallotte, Varnamtown and Holden Beach. The tree is at the intersection of N.C. 179 and U.S. 17 Business in Shallotte.

Brunswick Students Named To High School 'Who's Who'

'Love Light' Tree Ceremony Planned Monday At Hospital

Lower Cape Fear Hospice volunteers will take part in a "Love Light Tree" lighting ceremony Monday, Dec. 13, on the grounds of The Brunswick Hospital in Supply.

A similar ceremony was held this past Monday at Doshier Memorial Hospital in Southport.

The program benefits Hospice, whose purpose is to improve the quality of life of terminally ill people and their families, "alleviating pain and recognizing that the terminally ill have special physical, emotional, social and spiritual needs."

Each light on the trees will have a special significance. For donations of $5 or more, an individual or family may sponsor a light on the tree in honor or in memory of someone they love or admire. For a donation of $25 or more, they may sponsor a light on the star atop the tree.

A card will be sent to notify the honoree or loved one. Each name also will be placed in a Book of Honor to be displayed in the Doshier or Brunswick Hospital lobby throughout the holiday season.

For more information about the program, contact Hospice at 754-5356 or 800-735-6205.
