

Man Gets House Arrest For Biting, Kicking Drug Detectives

A Supply man who bit and kicked two sheriff's department narcotics officers after refusing to stop for their blue lights and sirens was sentenced to 90 days of house arrest and two years probation on eight misdemeanor convictions in Brunswick County District Court last week.

Randy Levi Grissett, 29, of Route 3 was found guilty of two counts each of assaulting a government official and resisting arrest and one charge each of speeding to elude arrest, failure to yield to a police, fire or emergency vehicle, reckless driving to endanger, and failure to wear a seat belt.

Court records indicate that Grissett was stopped at the intersection of Cedar Grove Road and Mt. Pisgah Road shortly before midnight Oct. 6, after speeding to elude capture by Brunswick County sheriff's detectives Mike Speck and Doug Todd.

As the two officers were attempting to take Grissett into custody, he bit Speck on the left hand three times and kicked Todd in the right foot, arrest warrants show.

After finding Grissett guilty, Judge Ola Lewis sentenced him to four years in prison, suspended on the condition that he pay a $150 fine and $360 for his court-appointed lawyer and submit to 90 days of house arrest. He was ordered not to violate any laws, to become and remain gainfully employed, to not possess any firearms and to not harvest any Venus flytraps for the next two years, during which time he will remain on supervised probation.

Judge Lewis presided over three days of district court in Bolivia last week. Assistant District Attorney Rick Green prosecuted, while Marie Jordan served as courtroom clerk.
