Whiteville Girls Snap South's Streak

The Whiteville girls' basketball team snapped South Brunswick's 22-game conference winning streak Friday night, beating the Lady Cougars 46-44 in Boiling Spring Lakes.

Dee Dee Toon scored 12 points to lead the Lady Wolfpack, who handed South Brunswick its first Waccamaw Conference loss since the 1991-92 regular season.

Starting with the 1992 conference tournament, the Lady Cougars had won 22 straight league games including 17 last season en route to a regular-season mark of 26-0.

Whiteville improved to 3-1 in the conference and 12-2 overall. South Brunswick, led by Erika Bryant's 21 points, fell to 2-1 in league play and 8-5 overall.

South Brunswick was scheduled to continue league play this week with a Tuesday night game at Pender. The Lady Cougars will visit South Columbus on Friday and entertain the Lady Trojans of West Brunswick on Saturday.

South Senior Named All-State Cheerleader

Amanda Burnside, captain of the South Brunswick High School varsity cheerleading squad, has been named to the North Carolina Cheerleading Coaches' Association all-state team.

The senior will cheer for the East team at the annual East-West High School Football Game to be held this July in Greensboro.

"We're real excited about it because this is the first all-state cheerleader this school has ever had since it opened," South Brunswick Coach Pam Basnight said.

Burnside is the daughter of Jennie Brandewie of Winnabow. She has been involved in cheerleading all four years at South Brunswick and has been a member of the varsity squad the past three years.

Basnight said a videotape of

AMANDA BURNSIDE

Burnside's cheering was one of 74 submitted to the coaches' association. Fifteen team members and five alternates were selected for the East and West squads.

The official announcement of the all-state team will be made Saturday at the North Carolina State Cheerleading Championship at Memorial Auditorium in Raleigh.
