Cheers-Hartsell Wedding Is Celebrated At Bethel United Methodist Church

Stacie Cheers of Bolivia and Michael Ray Hartsell of Holden Beach were united in marriage Dec. 4 at 5 p.m. in Bethel United Methodist Church, Bolivia. The Rev. Russell Knowles officiated the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Billy Ray Cheers, wore a formal gown of candlelight satin and beaded, re-embroidered alencon lace with a sheer yoke and long leg-omutton sleeves, sweetheart neckline of English net and high beaded Victorian collar. The fitted elongated bodice dropped to a point at the waistline and flared to the scallop hemline. The back featured covered buttons and loops to the dropped waistline which extended into a cathedral train.

A chapel-length multi-layered tulle veil on a Juliette cap trimmed with pearls and cascading roses accentuated the gown. She carried a bouquet of wine and ivory roses with lace candlelight streamers.

Matron of honor was Trinia Griffin of Greenville, S.C. Bridesmaids were Anita Hartsell of Longwood and Heather Doshier of Holden Beach. Flower girl was Heather Divoky. Honorary bridesmaid was Stephanie Cheers Divoky of Aurora, Ill.

The attendants wore formal candlelight lace tea-length gowns with bias blouse and flared hemlines and carried Victorian wine and pink candles with cascading rosebuds.

Best man was James William Hartsell, the groom's father. Groomsmen were Jamey Hartsell of Longwood and Michael Griffin of Greenville, S.C. Wesley Clark of Raleigh. Ringbearer was Cody Knox of Bolivia. The groomsmen wore black tuxedos accented with Victorian pink bowties and cummerbunds.

Music was provided by Steve Renn, pianist, of Wilmington; Dr. William Knox, organist, of Wilmington; Jaxie Knowles, soloist, of Bolivia; and Jeff and Jenni Johnson of Yaupon Beach.

The wedding was directed by Wanda Frazier of Bolivia. Registrar was Laura Galloway of Varnamtown.

Following the ceremony a reception was hosted by the bride's parents at the Brunswick County Shrine Club. Serving were Debbie Stanley, Sharon Shannon, Tricia Shannon, Mable Mooney, Julia Knox, Gladys Bradford and Gertrude Williams.

Robinson To Perform Variety Of Musical Styles In Museum Concert

North Brunswick High School teacher Marva Mapson Robinson will sing German art songs, Negro spirituals and sacred music at Cape Fear Museum on Sunday, Feb. 20, at 3:30 p.m.

The program is part of the museum's life performance series.

Robinson, a Brunswick County native, is minister of music for St. Luke African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church in Wilmington. Her career has spanned 25 years and has included performances in Newark, N.J.; Roanoke, Va.; and San Francisco, and auditions for the New York City Opera Company.

Locally, she played the lead role in "Dreamgirls" at Thalian Hall.

She will be accompanied on piano by Broadus Evans, organist for Gregory Congregational Church in Wilmington.

Cape Fear Museum is at 814 Market St., Wilmington. It is open to the public Tuesday through Saturday, 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., and Sundays from 2-5 p.m.

Admission is $2 for adults; $1 for children 5-17, college students with valid ID and senior citizens 65 and older; and free for children under 5 or members of Cape Fear Museum Associates.

Free days are the first day of each month and the first and third Sundays.

Dance Planned At Tri-Beach

A Sweetheart Dance will take place Sat., Feb. 12, at 7 p.m. at the Tri-Beach Volunteer Fire Dept. building near Holden Beach.

Cover charge will be $3 per couple or $1.50 for singles.

Refreshments will be sold, and chances will be sold on a Valentine's floral arrangement.

"If you have favorite tunes—compact discs or cassettes only—feel free to bring them," said spokesman Peggy Montgomery.
