

Jenrette-Matthews Ceremony Held At Pleasant View Church

Vicki Michele Jenrette of Shalotte and James Renard Matthews of Conway, S.C., were united in marriage at 6 p.m. Nov. 27 at Pleasant View Missionary Baptist Church, Grissetown.

The double-ring ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Hubert Reaves of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., the bride's uncle, and the Rev. James L. Smith of Whiteville, pastor of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jenrette Jr. of Shalotte. The bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Amos Matthews Jr. of Lane, S.C.

The wedding was directed by Valencia Matthew of Tallahassee, Fla., sister of the groom. Evelyn Jenrette of Newport News, Va., cousin of the bride, and Alice Hill of Whiteville attended the guest register.

A program of wedding music was provided by organist Brian Burroughs of Conway, saxophonist Joe Davis of Wilmington and vocalist Hilda McKiever of Conway.

The bride was presented in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father. She wore a formal gown of white satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a high neckline with sheer yoke insert bordered by puffed, tapered sleeves. Embroidered lace, lavished in pearls and sequins, adorned the neckline, bodice and sleeves. Falling from a basque waistline, the full skirt swept into a cathedral train. The fingertip veil of sheer illusion was attached to a wreathing of pearled baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Phyllis Reaves of Little River, S.C., cousin of the bride. Maid of honor was Jewel Reaves of Winston-Salem, also the bride's cousin.

Bridesmaids were the bride's cousins Vivian Jordan and Vanessa Reaves, both of Shalotte, and Myra Banks of North Myrtle Beach, S.C.; Nakell Matthews of Columbia, S.C., sister of the groom; Teresa Stevenson of Supply; and Cassandra King of Shalotte, cousin of the groom.

Flower girls were Charita Minniefield, niece of the groom; Krystle Bland, cousin of the bride; and Lakeisha Hankins, goddaughter of the bride. Ring bearer was Michael Frink. Trevor Minniefield, the groom's nephew, was the aisle pager.

Serving as best men were George Williams Jr. of Conway and Christopher Matthews of Hartford, Conn., the groom's brother. Groomsmen were the Rev. Antonio Smith of Spartanburg, S.C.; Luther Patrick Jr. of Florence, S.C., cousin of the groom; Sigmund Jenrette of Raleigh, brother of the bride; Martin Matthews of Washington, D.C., cousin of the groom; Fredrick Pasley of Charleston, S.C.; and Johnny Brown of Conway.

Ushers were the Rev. Hezekiah Reaves Jr. of Shalotte, cousin of the bride; Boykin Parson of Greeleyville, S.C., cousin of the groom; Marvin Shaw of Greeleyville, S.C.; and Ernest Rogers of Conway, cousin of the groom.

The bride's parents hosted a reception at the Jones-Byrd Clubhouse in Sunset Beach, with music provided by the Psalms Band of Wilmington. The register and gifts were received by Terri Mitchell.

The groom's parents honored the bride and groom with a rehearsal dinner Nov. 26 in the Pleasant View Church Fellowship Hall.

Bridal showers were given by the bridesmaids at the home of Vanessa Reaves Nov. 6 and at the Brunswick County School Bus Garage Nov. 12, and by the Brunswick County school bus drivers of West Brun-

Bail To Benefit Shalotte Library

Friends of the West Brunswick Branch Library will host a Sweetheart Ball Friday, Feb. 11, from 7-11 p.m. to raise money toward a temporary site for the Shalotte library.

The library is scheduled to close this spring for several months while it is renovated and enlarged.

The Friends are planning to rent and an interim facility with funds contributed from the community and to staff it with a combination of library and volunteer staff.

The dance will take place at the Shalotte Senior Citizens Center on U.S. 17 Business.

Cost is $5 per person or $8 per couple. Tickets can be bought at the door or in advance at the library.
