European Paintings Collection Featured

The Waterway Art Association will meet Wednesday, Feb. 16, at the Sunset Beach Fire Station.

N.C. Museum of Art outreach volunteer George McDaniel will present a program on European paintings from the museum's Kress Collection and from other Kress collections of museums nationwide.

Members and prospective members are invited to bring their lunch for shared time beginning at 12:30 p.m. A business meeting will start at 1:30, to be followed by McDaniels' presentation.

For more information, call Patti Matheny at 579-1705.

NARFE To Meet

The Brunswick County Chapter of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) will hold its monthly meeting at the Sandfiddler Restaurant, Southport, on Tuesday, Feb. 8, at noon.

Guest speaker will be Boyd Williamson, Brunswick County tax supervisor.

All members and prospective members are invited. NARFE meetings are open to the public, and membership is available to federal retirees and federal employees with at least five years of service.

Post Hosts District

Calabash VFW Post 7288 members and auxiliaries hosted the district Veterans of Foreign Wars meeting at the post Sunday, Jan. 23.

The meeting was followed by a buffet dinner cooked by the auxiliaries.

The ladies auxiliary will assist the Veterans' Administration's "Hospital on Wheels" at the Shallotte National Guard Armory Feb. 10. The service is available to all veterans having medical problems. Auxiliaries will help veterans fill out their forms.

AARP To Meet

Calabash Chapter 3640, American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) will meet Feb. 3 at 7 p.m. in the Calabash Firehouse on Persimmon Road.

Following the business meeting, a video will be shown on the wonders of nature.

Refreshments will be served, and guests are welcome, said Tony Santino, publicity chairman.

Club Changes Sites

The Beachcombers Extension Homemakers Club will meet at the Seaside United Methodist Church on Wednesday, Feb. 9, at 10 a.m.

The club formerly met at Bonaparte Retreat in Calabash. The program will be on protecting yourself against "scams," which club spokesman Isobel Beebe called "a very important subject in view of the many newspaper articles warning the public of the danger of being too trusting."

New members are welcome. For more information, call Jean Mearns, president, at 579-2146.

Arts Festival Set

The Annual Arts Festival of the Shallotte Junior Woman's Club will be held Monday, Feb. 7, at West Brunswick High School.

Students from Waccamaw Elementary School, Shallotte Middle School, West Brunswick High School and The Cray School will be competing for recognition in numerous art categories.

The categories include music, drama, public speaking, painting, sculpture, photography, literature, sewing and crafts.

The public is invited to the Performing Arts Competition, which begins at 6:45 p.m. Monday. The public can view the other art work at 7:30 p.m.

Local winners will compete at the district level, and if successful there, will go on to state competition.

Junior Woman's Club Gives Awards

The Shallotte Junior Woman's Club recently presented six awards to club members and non-members for outstanding service.

Past President Lynne Carr presented the Dianne W. Holden President's Award to Carson Durham of Camp United Methodist Church for the church's service to the club.

Brenda Batchlor of the South Brunswick Islands Woman's Club presented all other awards as follows:

- The Sandra D. Thomas Outstanding Clubwoman Award to Carr for her contribution to the local club. Carr also received the Sylvia Tripp Congeniality Award for outstanding contribution in club work.

■ For outstanding work in citizenship and patriotism, Susan Gibble received the Kathryn C. Gainey Citizenship Award.

■ The Tommye Glenn Outstanding New Member Award was presented to Dayna Ramsey-Sanders for her contribution as a new member in all areas of club work.

■ Cathy Ross and Mary Jo Melcher received Sharon Bradsher Cranford Outstanding Department Chairman Awards.

Board Will Tour North End Schools Friday

County school board members will visit all three schools in the North Brunswick attendance area Friday, starting with Lincoln Primary.

Leland Middle School and North Brunswick High School are also on the schedule.

At each school the board will first meet with the principal, then tour classrooms. Lunch is planned at Leland Middle School.

From 3 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., faculty from all three schools have been invited to meet with board members at North Brunswick High School for "discussion, questions, response," a memo from Superintendent Ralph J.

Johnston stated.

After that gathering, the board may drive out N.C. 133 to the site proposed for a new Leland Elementary School. The board may know as early as Wednesday afternoon if the 30-acre tract is available from the N.C. State Ports Authority (See related story in this issue.)

'Kismet' Auditions Set Feb. 6-7

Auditions will take place Sunday and Monday for the April production of "Kismet" by the Brunswick Little Theatre in co-operation with Brunswick Community College.

Lead singers, actors, dancers, chorus and technical workers are needed.

Auditions will take place Sunday, Feb. 6, from 3 until 6 p.m. and on Monday, Feb. 7, from 7 until 9 p.m. at the Odell Williamson Auditorium on the BCC campus in Supply.

The production is scheduled for April 15 and 16, also in the Williamson Auditorium.

Brunswick College Fair Offers Glimpse At Potential Jobs In Area

Thirty businesses seeking employees will participate in Brunswick Community College's Job Fair '94 Thurs., Feb. 17, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the Administration Building.

Several area employers who are hiring will have exhibits, along with some employers from the Research Triangle area, said Bea Haik, coordinator. She encourages job hunters to "bring their resumes and dress for success."

Haik said the fair provides an opportunity for those who are graduating this spring and summer to find out about future jobs in this area.

Participants will include Atlantic Vacation Resorts, Autumn Care of Shallotte, Bald Head Island Management, Brunswick County, Columbus County Hospital, Doshier Hospital, Comprehensive Home Health Care, Dudley Products Inc., and the North Carolina Employment Security Commission.

The Brunswick County Literacy Council will also participate. It expects to have several slots available for Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) workers.

Other participants will include First Citizens Bank, Interim Health Care, Kingston Plantation, National Bishop Realty, Sands Oceanfront Resorts, Sea Trail Plantation, State Employees' Credit Union, WWAY-TV, U.S. Marines, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Well Care & Nursing Services, Western Temporary Services and Youngblood Staffing.

Refreshments and hourly door prizes are planned.

For more information contact Haik at BCC, 754-6900, Ext. 327.

Winnabow VFD To Serve BBQ

The Winnabow Volunteer Fire Department will serve barbecue on Saturday, Feb. 5, from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Plates will include pork barbecue, potato salad, cole slaw and hush puppies. Cost will be $3 or $4.50 for a "super plate."

The department is on Governor's Road off U.S. 17 in Winnabow.

Health Fair '94

The largest and longest running health fair in the Grand Strand and Waccamaw Regions, Health Fair '94 promises to be bigger and better than ever before. With over 85 exhibitors offering free health screenings, information on health and human services, and fitness demonstrations, you're sure to find the day to be the best way to kick off a healthy 1994. And what's even better is that admission is free!

If you have kids, bring them too. There'll be balloons, a puppet show, fingerprinting and more.

A Panel-24 blood test will be offered for just $22. Be sure to fast for 12 hours. Forms for pre-registration and information about the blood test will be available in the lobby of Grand Strand General Hospital the week of February 1.

Mark your calendar now and we'll see you at the fair!
