County Reminds; Migrant Housing Needs Inspection

The Brunswick County Health Department is reminding owners of migrant housing facilities that they must register with the N.C. Department of Labor 45 days before the arrival of migrant workers.

In addition, all housing for migrant workers must be inspected by the health department before the workers' arrival.

To arrange for an inspection, call Hubert Reaves at the Brunswick County Health Department, 253-4381.

Smokey To Visit Wal-Mart

Smokey The Bear, pictured during the 1993 Shallotte Christmas Parade, will visit Wal-Mart in Shallotte on Saturday. He will be at the store from 8:30 a.m. until noon, handing out balloons to kids. Parents are welcome to bring cameras to photograph their children with Smokey. The U.S. Forest Service bear is in his 50th year of fire prevention work.
