

MR. AND MRS. JACK H. HEWETT JR.
...Denise Jackson Brame

Brame, Hewett Vows Spoken In Faith Apostolic Church

Denise Jackson Brame and Jack H. Hewett Jr. were united in marriage Jan. 1 at 2 p.m. in Faith Apostolic Church of Nakina.

The Rev. William Bacorn officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Miles and Faye Jackson of Ocean Isle Beach, formerly of Lumberton. The groom is the son of Jack H. Hewett Sr. of Ocean Isle Beach, Karen Paine of Raleigh, and Ronald and Betty Shugart of St. Augustine, Fla.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of taffeta with a fitted bodice of lace over taffeta, accented with pearls. Her chapel-length, multi-tiered veil trimmed with silk roses and pearls complemented the gown. She carried a bouquet of royal blue roses and white daisies, with matching silk streamers. The groom's aunt, Marie Pate of St. Augustine, Fla., fashioned the bride's bouquet and those of her attendants.

Wanda Smith of Shallotte served as matron of honor, while Jeanette Hewett, the groom's daughter, was honorary bridesmaid. Both wore royal blue silk tea-length dresses overlaid with lace. They carried bouquets of royal blue, mauve and white flowers with streamers and pearl sprays.

Best man was Johnny Smith of Shallotte. Groomsmen were Major Hewett of Shallotte and Jeff Hewett of St. Augustine, Fla., brothers of the groom. The men in the wedding party wore charcoal gray tuxedos.

Music was provided by pianist and soloist Anita George of Shallotte.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given at the DAV Building on Ocean Isle Beach Road by the groom's mother and stepfather, Ronald and Betty Shugart, and the groom's sister-in-law, Mickie Hewett.

Second KidsFest Set Feb. 19-20

KidsFest '94—the second annual weekend of cultural, educational and safety-related presentations and exhibits for children—will take place Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 19 and 20, at the newly expanded Myrtle Beach Convention Center.

Two days of hands-on participation in the fields of science, art and health education, KidsFest is expected to attract thousands of children from throughout the region. More than 13,000 attended last year.

Continuous entertainment and activities, as well as more than 150 exhibit booths, will be provided. Storytellers will perform, and there will be environmental presentations from South Carolina Educational Television and Huntington State Park in a lecture castle that will include live animals.

Stage shows every 30 minutes will include dancers, tumbling acts, magicians and singers.

Police officers and firefighters will discuss safety and crime prevention, and children will be able to have their fingerprints taken. Health professionals will promote good hygiene, diet and the dangers of drugs. Retailers will display the latest in children's toys, fashions and educational products.

New this year will be a "Parade of Characters" including Barney, Big Bird, Tony the Tiger, the Crash Dummies and Smokey the Bear. The parade will take place Saturday at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m., and Sunday at 2 and 4 p.m. Photo opportunities will be available with many of the characters after each parade.

Admission at the door is $3 for children and $5 for adults. Advance tickets are available at all Myrtle Beach Chamber of Commerce locations and are priced at $2 for children and $4 for adults.

No child will be admitted without an adult, and no adult without a child.

To Wed Feb. 12

Hazel Meyer of Ash and George Smith of Leland have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Patricia G. Smith of Shallotte, to Brian K. Meyer, also of Shallotte. Meyer is the son of Donald Meyer of Winnabow and Julia Keel of Leland. The two will be married in a private ceremony at noon Saturday, Feb. 12. No invitations are being sent, however friends and relatives are invited to a reception to be held at 5 o'clock that evening at the newlyweds' home in Shallotte.
