CLUB BRIEFS

Barbershop Chorus To Perform

The Brierwood Ladies Club will hold its next meeting on Monday, Feb. 14.

This Valentine's Day, member Ginger Sugrue has arranged for the Shallotte Ladies Barbershop Chorus, directed by Sue Houston, to entertain with a selection of songs.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the Brierwood Clubhouse. All female residents of Brierwood Estates are invited.

Writers To Meet

Lower Cape Fear Chapter, Romance Writers of America, will meet Saturday, Feb. 19, at 10 a.m. at the Oak Island Presbyterian Church.

The church is at 1503 E. Oak Island Drive, Long Beach.

Deb Daniel, supervisor of the Cape Fear Literacy Council, will present a program on "Writing for the Low-Level Reader."

Prospective members are welcome to attend, according to Joy Formy-Duval, publicity chair.

Blood Drive Set

Calabash Elks Lodge 2679, in conjunction with the American Red Cross, will sponsor a community blood drive on Saturday, Feb. 26, at the Elks Lodge, 937 Carter Drive, Calabash.

The drive will take place from 9 a.m. until noon.

New regulations permit people over 65 to donate blood, said John F. Ziefel, lodge spokesman.

Bigelow Honored

U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Ralph Bigelow has been named "Auxiliary of the Year" for South Brunswick Islands Flotilla 10-08.

"This award is given to a member who has done outstanding work on behalf of the flotilla," said Francis M. Womack Jr., public relations officer. "Mr. Bigelow, a member for only one year, received necessary training, passes necessary tests and performed the job of operations officer in an orderly and productive manner. Flotilla 10-08 is proud to have Ralph Bigelow as a part of its unit."

John Czap and Jim Galvin took the pledge of membership at the January flotilla meeting. Both had completed the basic qualification requirements.

Patients Getting Cards

Students at Union Elementary School in Shallotte recently made Valentine's cards for patients at the V.A. Medical Center in Fayetteville.

The project was in cooperation with the Ladies Auxiliary of Calabash VFW Post No. 7288, which will mail the cards to the hospital. Coordinating the effort were Cathy Sommers, auxiliary president, and Ellen Oellerich.

This is the second year Union students have made cards for the veterans, said auxiliary spokeswoman Mary Benes.

New Place, Time

The Brunswick County Animal League has changed its meeting place and time, reports president

Alma Tolson.

The league, which meets on the last Wednesday of every month, will gather at 1 p.m. at the Atlantic Telephone office in Shallotte. Its next meeting is Feb. 23.

Golder Is Speaker

Walker Golder, N.C. sanctuary manager for the National Audubon Society, will be guest speaker when the Brunswick Bird Club meets on Wednesday, Feb. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of Atlantic Telephone Membership Corporation.

He will speak and show slides of his wildlife trip to Alaska. Anyone interested in nature and the environment is welcome to attend. For more information, call Marcia Warring, 579-9474.

Atlantic Telephone is on N.C. 130 west of Shallotte.

Rotary Club Scholarships Offered

The South Brunswick Islands Rotary Club is offering applications for the 1995-96 Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarships to be awarded worldwide.

The scholarships, designed to further international understanding and goodwill, provide for study abroad in one of the 189 countries and geographical regions where Rotary Clubs exist. Some 1,000 scholarships of various types are available.

Academic-year Ambassadorial Scholarships are for one academic year abroad and provide round-trip transportation and up to $21,500 or its equivalent for tuition and fees, room, board, educational supplies, contingency expenses and one month of intensive language training, if assigned by the Rotary Foundation.

During their studies abroad, Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholars act as "ambassadors of goodwill." Through appearances before Rotary Clubs and districts, schools, civic organizations and other forums, the scholars represent their homelands and improve international understanding.

Interested persons should contact Elsa Jardine of the South Brunswick Islands Rotary Club at 754-7156 for application materials and local dead-
