PRESENTED BY BCC PRESIDENT REAVES

BIPS Crowns Valentine 'Royalty'

Henry Harris and Mary Holmes were crowned king and queen of the Brunswick Interagency Program (BIP) Sweetheart Dance held Friday, Feb. 11, at Brunswick Community College.
 Students in the program voted for their peers earlier in the week, also choosing Thomas Armstrong and Sharon Moore prince and princess. The "titled" students were awarded trophies.
 Each of the reigning students was crowned by Brunswick Community College President W. Michael Reaves.
 The BIP program serves the county's developmentally disabled teenagers and adults with continuing education, developmental activities, occupational skills, supportive employment and other services.
 Seventy-seven BIP students and their guests danced to a live band and received corsages and boutonnieres.
 Kelvin Williams and Penny James were named Mr. and Miss Sweetheart. Timothy Russ was named Mr. Sincere, and Miss Valentine was Barbara Hair. Kelly Humphrey was designated Mr. Cupid, and Trina Bland was voted Miss Cupid.

 Also named were Dion Smith as Mr. Romance, Jane Hooper as Miss Romance, and Andrew Carr as Mr. Heartbreaker. Students also named included Edna King as Miss Flirt, Wayne Boyd as Mr. Charmer and Barbara Stevenson as Prettiest Female. Friendliest Male was Leon Walker. Mr. Valentine was Richard Abarno and Most Handsome was Watts Allen.
 Marilyn Cottle was elected Friendliest Female, and Lisa Cheers was appointed Best Dressed Female for the evening's mock elections. Mr. Romeo was Terry Prince, Miss Juliet was Michelle Lewis. Most Thoughtful Female was Gloria Harvey, Miss Sincere was Claire Carus, and Mr. Dynamite was Robert Stanley.
 Janet Hussian was elected Most Talkative Female by her classmates, and Dale James received the vote as Most Talkative Male. Betty Rochelle was Most Warmhearted, and Ricky Jones was Most Imaginative Male. Maurice Edge won Most Cheerful Male, Anthony Patrick was Mr. Casa Nova, and Tim Blouir was Most Cooperative Male.

 Most Creative Male was Randy Cheers, and Rhonda Bellamy was Miss Cuddly. Most Cheerful Female was Suzanne Williams. Mr. Squeezable was Paul Durner, and Miss Dynamite was Beverly Criswell. David Robert was elected Mr. Sensational, Jimmy Strickland was nominated Most Outgoing Male, Bradford Pistore was Cutest Male, Danny Wright and Brian McMillian was selected as Sweetest Male.
 A volunteer band, the "Tiny Weeks Band" provided a variety of dancing music. The members included David Robinson of Holden Beach, Luke Fulford of Holden Beach, Jake Burnish of Southport, Albert Rogers of Leland, Kevin Rogers of Southport, Tiny Weeks of Greensboro and Billy Hollingsworth of Holden Beach.
