

Sally Manifold Shoots 89 In Carolina Shores Tourney

Sally Manifold fired gross 89 to lead the first flight in the Carolina Shores Ladies Golf Association tournament last Thursday.

Low net winners in the top flight were Ginny Dorshimer with 71 and Terry Gould with 72.

Second flight winners were Ginie Derricksen with gross 99 and Sue Greiner with net 76. Jean Palmer finished second with net 78.

Dolly Mott led the third flight with gross 106. Dot Russo fired the low net of 77, and Kathy Deming had a 79.

Top finishers in the fourth flight were Shirley Vazquez with gross 109 and Cynthia Omundsen with net 72. On a match of cards, Ducky Rice was second with net 79.

Dorshimer had the day's only birdie. Omundsen and Gladys Bowen tied for low putts with 30 apiece.

Making chip-ins were Omundsen and Carolyn D'Avanzo at the second hole, Jenny Briggs and Gerry Burdick at the eighth and Ilse Bateman at the 17th.

Sea Trail Ladies

Heni Moulton, Phyllis Manfred, Flo Ruff and Joan Llewellyn finished at one under par and won the Sea Trail Ladies Golf Association nine-hole captain's choice tournament last Wednesday.

Finishing second at two over par was the team of Joan Worley, Jane Bye, Maggie Crockett and Ann Otten. Golfers played the back nine of the Jones course.

Five teams finished at plus three, and order of finish was decided by a draw of cards.

Taking third was the foursome of Eva Baham, Martha Murphy, Holly Metsch and Patti Matheny. Jill Wilson, Elly Humboldt, Shirley Peterson and Nin Consalvi finished fourth.

Carding birdies were Llewellyn at the 10th hole and Elaine Lawrenson at the 13th.

Brierwood Men

The team of Bill Pingo, Gene Cordisco, Joe Reiter and Bill Goldsberry finished with 53 points to win the Brierwood Men's Golf Association points tournament last Thursday.

Using the two best net scores on each hole, teams received one point for par, two points for birdie, three for eagle and five for double eagle.

Dave Harper, Hank Culp and Ned Dye racked up 48 points and tied for second with the group that included John Twomey, Hal Schuler and Jim Kelleher.

In Brierwood Men's play last Monday, the team of Ted Narazinski, Frank Steeves, Joe Reiter and Bob Sterner shot 121 to win a two best ball tournament. The winners were 23 strokes under par.

Finishing one shot back in second place were Jack Bubbs, Dave Harper, Ned Dye and Jim Kelleher. Neal McCall, Bill Pingo and Bob Allwein took third with a score of 125.

Carolina Shores Men

Gary Mott, Dick Brooks, Bern Distler and Bob Lovaty shot 170 to win the Carolina Shores Men's Golf Association tournament last Thursday at Bay Tree.

Teams counted the two low net scores on the front nine and three low scores on the back nine.

Finishing second with 171 was the team of Bill Marsh, Paul Neal, Gordon Goodwin and Bernie Anderson.

The foursome of Bob Kilgore, John Ward, Dan Cuomo and Ted Paliwoda took third with 172.

Closest-to-the-pin winners included Marsh at the sixth hole, Jerry Downes at the eighth and John Crane at the 12th.

Brick Landing Women

Runners-up in the top flight were Peggy Campana in second place and Alice Grossman in third.

Second flight winners included Pat Taylor in first place and Ruth Gardner in second. Tied for third were Ginny Hohing and Marie Barry.

Ursula Styczynski won the third flight and was followed by Rosemary Dobson and Edna Hollowell.

Reporting birdies were Vivian Rowe at the second hole and Barry at the 12th. Chip-ins were made by Dobson at the sixth and Cullen at the seventh.

Sea Trail Men

Byron Peterson, Herb Holman, Ronnie Hahn and George Lefelar shot 125 to win the first flight in the Sea Trail Men's Golf Association tournament last Tuesday.

Playing the Byrd course, teams counted the two low scores on each hole. Ray Washam, Roger Long, Gene Williams and Ron Schadle finished second with a score of 129.

Leading the second flight with 127 was the foursome of Doug Mehne, Bill Miller, Joe Hasson and Dick Zinser. Finishing five strokes back in second were Don Lowenstein, Ray Dillon, Bud Tunt and a blind draw.

Also using a blind draw, the team of Bill Zanzalari, Joe Carpinello and Rick Redeker won the third flight with a 126. Tom Coniglio, Keith Curry, Bob Delaney and a blind draw took second with 132.

Winning the fourth flight with a score of 123 was the team of Bob Erbach, Dick Billiar, Bob Pearce and Bill Connor. Ken Harris, Herb Yost, Jerry Nappy and a blind draw placed second with 136.

Closest-to-the-pin winners were Tunt at the second hole, Zanzalari at the seventh and Curry at the 12th.

Calabash Veterans

Wash Dayton, Mike Seck, Bob Phillips and Steve Taylor shot 66 to win the Calabash Veterans Golf Association captain's choice Saturday at River Hills.

Finishing one stroke back in second place was the team of Jack Brady, Joe Ready, Bob Erbach and Bill Jagoe.

Third place went to John Marcotte, Paul Turan, Harry Knowles and Bernie Streeter with 69.

Last Friday, the Calabash Veterans held a three best nets of foursome tournament at Brunswick Plantation.

Leading the way with a score of 191 was the team of Lew Meyer, Pat Varney, Harry Birnie and Joe Ready (blind draw).

Art McGinn, Walt Lee, Chester Drouin and Jerry Russ finished second with 194.

The Calabash Veterans will play Friday at Ocean Isle Beach Golf Course. Show time is 7:30 a.m. for the individual low net tournament.

Ruth's Renegades

Golfers dropped scores on their two worst holes in the weekly Ruth's Renegades tournament last Thursday at Bay Tree and Brierwood.

Top finishers at Bay Tree were Karen Mugridge with net 79, Teddy Altreuter with 79.5 and Ann Genco with 80.5.

Mugridge had the overall low gross of 111 and net 79. Ruth Brown had the low net of 76 and gross 115. Altreuter was third in both divisions with gross 117 and net 80. Jackie Storm had a chip-in at the ninth hole.

At Brierwood, Evelyn Wuthrich led the way with net 62. She was followed by Anne Trudeau with 65 and Evie Hart with 66.5.
