Commercial Fishing Show, Festival Planned March 12-13

The N.C. Fisheries Association will sponsor the 14th annual Commercial Fishing Show March 12-13 at the Crystal Coast Civic Center in Morehead City.

A boat and gear show for commercial fishermen, it will feature exhibits and sales of boats, engines, electronics, fishing gear and accessory equipment.

The first Commercial Fishing Festival, to be held in conjunction with the show, will feature educational and informational exhibits about the history and heritage of commercial fishing and its villages and communities along the North Carolina coast.

North Carolina Sea Grant has arranged a Fisheries Forum to include these topics:

- the latest information on bycatch and bycatch reduction;
- discussion about the Atlantic States Cooperative Fishery Management Act and the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission;
- improving profits through health management of blue crab shedding operations;

■ mandatory federal seafood inspections, an overview by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

A donation of $2 will be requested of those who attend. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

The N.C. Fisheries Association is a private trade group organized in 1952 to represent the state's commercial fishermen, seafood dealers and processors.
