Shalotte Welcome Center Celebrates Tourism Week

Southeastern Welcome Center in Shalotte will be doing its part to promote tourism by inviting local and regional tourism officials to work in the center for a day during National Tourism Week, May 2-6.

Participating in the promotional efforts will be representatives from Chowan County Tourism, Duplin County Tourism, Cape Fear Coast Convention and Visitors Bureau, Southport-Oak Island Chamber of Commerce, South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce, the Johnston County Convention and Visitors Bureau and Onslow County Tourism.

The promotion's purpose is to give tourism groups "the opportunity to personally distribute information about a particular area to visitors and to talk with them one-on-one about what their area has to offer," said spokesman Sabrina Hodges. "It also allows these groups to observe the day-to-day operation of the welcome center and to meet personally with the staff."

Hodges said the public is being encouraged to visit the center and talk with the representatives during National Tourism Week. To find out what area will be represented on what day, call the welcome center at 754-2505.

Each tourism organization will provide its own display booth and materials.

TOWN OF OCEAN ISLE BEACH BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT HEARING May 10, 1994

There will be a Board of Adjustment Meeting held on Tuesday, May 10, 1994 at 8:30 A.M. at the Town Hall to hear the following:

An appeal to the Board of Adjustment by Milton E. Williams seeking a variance from the Zoning Ordinance Requirement set forth in Article 9, Paragraph 12, that prohibits extension over the area between the edge of the road and the road right of way. And Article 8, Section I, which prohibits extension across property lines where such property line borders a public right of way. A copy of the Variance Request and Zoning Ordinance is on file with the Building Inspector for review by all interested persons.

The appeal process is an open hearing but public comment is not allowed.

Local Students To Compete In Community College Contest

More than 125 students from Brunswick County's three high schools will compete in the Tenth Annual Business Data Processing Contest at Brunswick Community College Thursday (April 28).

The competition gives high school business students an opportunity to demonstrate their proficiency in computerized accounting, keyboarding, financial management, software applications and office simulation.

Presentation of awards for first-, second- and third-place winners in each of the five business categories, as well as an overall school winner, is scheduled for 1 p.m. in BCC's Odell Williamson Auditorium. Most of the morning activities will be held in the BCC classroom building.

Joyce Hewett, BCC director of business programs, coordinates the event in cooperation with the Business and Computer Science Departments of the local high schools. BCC business program instructors assist in the administration of various skills tests.

Rural Valuation Course Planned Daily At Southeastern May 3, 4

Real estate appraisers can earn credit toward continuing certification and state licensing by attending the upcoming seminar "Rural Valuation" at Southeastern Community College.

Arranged by the college's Small Business Center, the course will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, May 3 and 4, from 5-10:15 p.m. daily in room M-116 on the college campus in Whiteville. The course has been approved for ten continuing education credits by the N.C. Real Estate Appraisal Board. The $35 fee for the course may be paid at the first class meeting.

Whiteville real estate appraiser David Barker will present the two-day seminar covering the topics of land value analysis, direct comparison techniques and building residual and improvement values.

Barker has managed rural and commercial properties for United Carolina Bank for 20 years and has been an appraiser for ten years. He has been director of Natural Resources and Real Estate/Trust Group for UCB for the past five years. He has also taught appraisal courses at the national level for the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers.

For more information, call Floyd Shorter or Al Phillips at SCC, (910)642-7141.
