

Sunset Harbor Youth Jailed For Neighborhood Break-In

A 17-year-old Sunset Harbor youth was sentenced to 48 hours in jail and ordered to write a letter of apology to his victim after pleading guilty in Brunswick County District Court last week to charges of misdemeanor breaking and entering and larceny.

Daniel James Ray of Harbor Drive admitted breaking into a home on Sunset Harbor Road and stealing $766 worth of property last January. Among the items removed during the break-in were five fishing reels, a color television, a box of bullets, a folding knife and a case of beer, according to the arrest warrant.

Ray had been charged with felonious breaking and entering and larceny. He pleaded guilty to the lesser charges as part of a plea-bargain.

In addition to the active jail time, District Court Judge Ola Lewis gave Ray two consecutive two-year prison sentences. These were suspended on the condition that he pay restitution to his victim for the stolen property and $180 for his court-appointed lawyer.

Ray was also ordered to graduate from high school and to write a 10-page essay on his future goals and aspirations how a criminal record will affect those plans. He was put on supervised probation for four years.
