

Games, Crafts, Food To Be Part Of Elks' Spring Fling

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Calabash Elks Lodge is planning an old-fashioned "Community Spring Fling" to be held May 28 from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the lodge. Events will include a "pie-throw" at the mayor, a water dunk featuring the mayor pro team and activities for children to include a sack race, three-legged race, golf ball relay and sponge throw (at their parents). For the very young, there will be kiddie artists. A chili cook-off is also being planned. For information about entering your special recipe, call Ernie Shubeck at (803)249-9854. Artists, craftsmen and food vendors will be selling a variety of items throughout the day. Spaces are available at $10 each. For more information, call Pati Lewellyn at (910)579-3463 for more information.

Local 4-H Members, Leaders Win In State Wildlife Judging

Seven 4-H members and three adults from Brunswick County attended the first N.C. 4-H Wildlife Judging Competition April 30 at Hill Forest, N.C. State University's summer camp for the School of Forestry.

Sammy Coles, Casey Townsend, Judah Lindsay, Matthew Privette, E.J. Blake and Andy Barbee. The adults attending were volunteer leaders Carmen Coles, Cindy Townsend and Mary Lou Cumbee, 4-H program assistant. Participants competed in the areas of aerial photos, wildlife foods and wildlife management practices. Miriam Coles was overall high scorer. The state-winning junior team was Miriam Coles, Sammy Coles and Casey Townsend. Judah Lindsay was the only senior member from Brunswick County and has been invited to participate on the North Carolina team at national competition, scheduled for August in Utah. Carmen Coles and Cindy Townsend also have been invited to attend as volunteer leaders.

Volunteers Sought For Museum's New Storytime

The Museum of Coastal Carolina at Ocean Isle Beach is looking for volunteers to help with its new summer Storytime program for children.

A story-telling workshop to train volunteers will take place at the museum this Saturday, May 14, at 10 a.m.

Storytellers will be needed during June, July and August, on Tuesdays from 1-2:30 p.m. and on Thursdays from 3-4:30 p.m., said museum volunteer coordinator Martha Benton.

"We are really eager to have Storytime be a big success in its first year," Benton said. "It's a program we think both local and visiting children will enjoy and benefit from."

You don't need experience in storytelling—just a love for children and a willingness to give a little time, she added.

For more information, call Benton at 579-6995.

WBHS Spring Concert Set

The West Brunswick High School Music Department will hold its annual spring concert on Tuesday, May 24, at 7 p.m. in the Odell Williamson Auditorium at Brunswick Community College.

Performing will be the treble choir, show choir, concert band and jazz ensemble. The concert is free, and the public is invited.

Festival Planners To Meet Thursday

The N.C. Fourth of July Festival planning committee will meet Thursday, May 12, at 7 p.m. in the festival headquarters on West Moore Street in Southport.

Anyone in the community interested in volunteering their time to the festival is welcome to attend, said spokesman Lisa Tutor.
