Top Young Authors Honored

Signing Up For School

Two-year-old LaKayra Daniels (center) finds plenty to look at last week as her father, Ricky Daniels, registered her big brother Dashawn for kindergarten next fall at Union Elementary School. Kate Williamson (left) and Gaiys Frink were among the staff members greeting a steady stream of children and parents that also included Frances Bujkin and her daughter Crystal (right).
