Three Aboard Saratoga

Three Navy petty officers with family in Brunswick County are midway through a six-month deployment in the Adriatic Sea aboard the aircraft carrier USS Saratoga, homeported in Mayport, Fla., the lead ship in its battle group.

They are:

■ Petty Officer 1st Class David C. Kilgore, son of Robert E. and

Janice M. Kilgore of Bayberry Circle, Calabash. He joined the Navy in February 1981;

■ Petty Officer 2nd Class Craig A. Cobb, son of Patricia A. Grissette of Shallotte. He joined the Navy in February 1985; and

■ Petty Officer 2nd Class Brett A. Eichstaedt, whose wife Tiffany is the daughter of Vicki Niel of Village Road, Leland. He joined the Navy in February 1986 and holds a B.S. degree from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Ill.

They and their shipmates are supporting Operations Deny Flight and Provide Promise, helping to enforce United Nations sanctions in the former Yugoslavia.

Seventy-five chip and airwing sailors made a goodwill visit to a refugee camp in Slovenia, where they painted the camp's buildings, played soccer with residents and enjoyed an afternoon of music by the Saratoga Band.
