

Kopp-Todd Vows Exchanged At Trinity Methodist Church

Charlotte Paige Kopp of Boiling Spring Lakes and Jack Lionel Todd Jr. of Shallotte were united in marriage May 21 in a 5 p.m. ceremony at Trinity United Methodist Church in Southport. The Rev. P.D. Midgett performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Craig (Gail) Caster of Boiling Spring Lakes and William Kopp of Wilmington. She is a 1989 graduate of South Brunswick High School and holds the associate of arts degree from Peace College. She is completing requirements for her bachelor of arts degree in middle school education from UNC-Wilmington.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lionel Todd Sr. of Whiteville. He went to Whiteville High School and holds bachelor of science degrees in both wildlife management and agricultural economics from N.C. State University. He is the Holden Beach branch manager for United Carolina Bank.

Wedding music was provided by Cathy Furless, organist, and Cindy Sellers, soloist. Scriptures were read by Henrietta Todd, the groom's sister.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of sheer white shantung over bridal satin designed with a scoop neckline detailed with pearls and short puffed sleeves of shirring accented with bands of pearls. The fitted bodice formed an extended dropped waistline with hip-line shirring and center back bow embellished with the pearl motif. The full skirt flowed into a chapel train edged with a curled hemline.

The bride's accessories included her maternal grandmother's pearl necklace. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion featured a scalloped border dotted with tiny pearls and was attached to a crystal and pearl tiara.

She carried an orchid-centered bouquet with cascading white roses, freesia, baby's breath and English ivy.

The bride's cousin, Karen Kopp Ahalt of College Park, Md., was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Dawn Alexander of Wilson, the bride's cousin; Elizabeth Sneed of Durham, the bride's cousin; Wallyce Todd of Whiteville, the groom's sister; Amanda Dion of Decatur, Ga.; and Susan Finley of Boiling Spring Lakes.

The bridesmaids wore coral crepe street-length sheaths with short sleeves, round necklines and detachable full gathered overskirts of coral gauze lace. The matron of honor wore a floor-length dress of the same design and color. They carried colonial bouquets of shasta daisies, alstroemeria, miniature carnations and sprays of ivy.

Flower girl was Carley Davis of Calabash. She wore a white cotton batiste dress with scalloped bib collar edged with lace, short puffed sleeves accented with white satin bows and a white sash at the empire waistline. She carried a white moire street-length sheath with short petals. Her headpiece was a tiara of tiny satin roses and ribbon.

The groom's father was his best man. Ushers were Dan Todd of Durham, the groom's brother; Alan Phillips of Newland, the groom's cousin; James Phillips of Newland, the groom's cousin; Shane Todd of Atlanta, Ga., the groom's cousin; and Daniel Kopp of Boiling Spring Lakes, the bride's brother.

The bride's honorary attendants were Sara Conrad of Southport, Denise Baldree of Greenville, Mary Frances Muller of Kernersville, Carolina DeCamp of Charlotte and Molly Dickinson of Mount Pleasant, S.C.

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, was held at Fox Squirrel Country Club in Boiling Spring Lakes. Susan Rigsbee attended the guest register, and the wedding cake was cut by Marie Brittain.

After a wedding trip to Savannah, Ga., and Charleston, S.C., the couple will live in Shallotte.

Pre-nuptial Events
The groom's parents hosted a wedding rehearsal dinner May 20 at the Southport Community Building.

The bride and her attendants were honored with a bridal brunch on May 20, hosted by Charlotte Alexander and Libby Sarner, aunts of the bride, and Patti Erkes and Dawn Alexander, cousins of the bride.

Other parties and showers were given by Col. and Mrs. C.E. Zakszeski, Boiling Spring Lakes; Mrs. John R. Kopp Sr. and Mrs. John R. Kopp Jr., Bolivia; Mr. and Mrs. Armand Carter and Mr. and Mrs. David Carter, Whiteville; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis, Calabash; the Gene Ezzell family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. George Holt, Whiteville; Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Langston of Whiteville.

Stout-Callender Wedding Celebrated Saturday In Ash

Wendy Lee Stout became the bride of Richard Ellis Callender in a 3 p.m. double-ring ceremony May 21 at Trinity Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church in Ash.

Officiating was the Rev. William Chappell.

The bride is the daughter of Christine Stout of Ash and the late Jack Stout.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Callender Jr. of Shallotte. He is the grandson of Zettie Callender and Retha Ferguson.

The bride chose a white gown of antique shantung silk. Its bodice featured seed pearls and iridescent beads on re-embroidered Venice lace, and a V neckline. The gown flowed to a deep V in the center of the back with a full-flowing skirt featuring a large butterfly bow on a semi-cathedral train.

Her headpiece was a band of seed pearls and sheer tulle with a pouff attached to a fingertip double-layer veil.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Randy Stout.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Katie Stout of Ash. The bridesmaid was Jessica Stout, niece of the bride. Tiffany Callender served as flower girl.

Best man was Joel Taylor of Shallotte. Timmy Smith of Ash was the usher. Ringbearer was Scott Stout.
