More Pennies For Supply

Supply Elementary School Principal Carolyn Williams (left) accepts a check for $1,000 from Nellie Sellers (right), treasurer of Supply Baptist Church, while Bobbie Sellers (center), teacher at Supply and member of the church, looks on. The school converted the church's donation to pennies and added it to the penny box in the school office. The school's goal was to obtain $10,000 by May; so far, $7,800 has been raised toward the purchase of playground equipment.

Supply Spotlight

Memory David Goforth and Janet Herzog were chosen for recognition during June at Supply Elementary School.

Goforth is an art teacher who holds the B.F.A. degree in art and art education for grades K through 12. She was graduated from UNC-Greensboro in 1978 and has taught six years in a Greensboro private school in addition to her three years in Brunswick County.

She serves on the awards, guidance, staff development, friendships and safe environment committees at Southport and is chairman of the Art

Committee and Supply Yearbook Committee.

She is president of Memory Homes Inc. and a member of the Brunswick County Turtle Watch Program. She lives in Supply with her son Sean, 11.

Herzog is a first-grade teacher assistant and was chosen for recognition for her work on the school's awards assemblies and certificates.

Currently attending Brunswick Community College, Herzog has been a teacher's assistant for seven years. She serves on the school's awards committee and is active in Sacred Heart Church in Southport, where she is youth leader, eucharistic minister and lector.

Herzog lives in Winnabow with husband Bob and sons Chucky and Adam. She also has a son, Robert, who served in the Air Force in Alaska.

Henry Departs For Deployment

Marine Guntery Sgt. Kevin L. Henry recently departed for a six-month deployment to the western Pacific with Marine Attack Squadron 214, 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing, Marine Corps Air Station, Yuma, Ariz.

He is the son of Mariabelle B. and Harry W. Henry Sr. of Route 3, Supply.

Detachment B of Henry's squadron will serve in support of the 11th Marine Expeditionary Unit, which is embarked among the ships of the USS Peleliu Amphibious Ready Group.

Marines from Detachment B will serve in Somalia and Southwest Asia. Also, during their deployment, they are scheduled to conduct joint exercises with Kuwait, Thailand and Singapore.

Henry, a 1971 graduate of Fairmont East High School of Kettering, Ohio, joined the Marine Corps in September 1975.

Adkins Reports

Coast Guard Petty Officer 3rd Class Richard S. Adkins recently reported for duty aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Jarvis, homeported in Honolulu.

Adkins is the son of Barry S. and Donna K. Adkins of Spikerush Trail, Southport. The 1991 graduate of the Fork Union Military Academy of Fort Union, Va., joined the Coast Guard in August 1991.

Honors For Sisters

Keira Williams and Lauren Williams, daughters of Roger and Joyce Williams of Holden Beach, have been named to the high school honor roll for the spring semester at Saint Mary's in Raleigh.

Both students recently completed 11th grade.

To be eligible for the honor roll, a student must earn at least a 3.25 grade point average on at least 14 semester hours while maintaining the status of a "student in good standing" with the school.

Saint Mary's is a two-year college and four-year preparatory school for women offering liberal arts programs.

Receives Scholarship

Sally Schutte, a June graduate of West Brunswick High School in Shallotte, has been awarded a $500 performing arts scholarship from Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk to major in theatre arts.

Schutte was selected for the award on the basis of a videotape audition of her role in West Brunswick's spring 1993 production of "Steel Magnolias." The scholarship can be renewed each year, for a total value of $2,000, if Schutte maintains a 2.5 grade point average (GPA) her freshman year and 3.0 GPA thereafter.

She is the daughter of Stephen and Connie Schutte of Supply.

Wilson wins award

Gloria Wilson, a Brunswick County school bus driver, has been named winner of the 1994 Tracy Lea Calhoun Memorial Award for safe driving by the N.C. Petroleum Marketers Association.

Wilson has been driving with the system 13 years and has a perfect driving record, never having had an accident.

Robert H. White of R.D. White and Sons Inc., Shallotte, presented the plaque June 8 on behalf of the association.

The N.C. Petroleum Marketers Association established the bus safety award for each county in North Carolina in honor of Tracy Lea
