Megivern Among Stars Of New Tapestry Theatre Production

Tapestry Theatre Company will present the second show in its continuing Sunday Afternoon Tea Series, "The Aurelia Women's League Flower and Garden Show Gala Planning Committee," at 4 p.m. June 19 at Wilmington's historic deRosset House.

The production stars Beacon contributor Marjorie Megivern, Susan King, Phyllis Wenderlich, Ginny Williams and Jeremie Wilson.

The play is by Charlotte playwright Judy Simpson Cook and is directed by Mike Farrow. It is about five committee members who decide to take a business-like approach to planning their club's annual gala.

"Given their different personalities and the hostess's secret introduction of wine punch into the refreshments, there are definite comic obstructions to good planning," Megivern said.

The deRosset House is at Dock and Second streets, Wilmington. Tickets are $6, and reservations are available by calling Tapestry at (910)763-8830 or the Historic Wilmington foundation at (910)762-2511.

Gourmet confections and beverages will be served. Seating is limited, and the last performance was a sell-out.

2nd Division Band Offers Evening Concert June 22

The renowned 2nd Division Band from Camp Lejeune will present an evening concert in Southport June 22.

The free performance will take place at 7 p.m. on the Fort Johnson lawn, Bay Street—the former Civil War officers' barracks and the home of the Military Ocean Terminal Sunny Point commander.

The band has performed before various presidents of the United States, the queen of England and many other heads of state, dignitaries and civic leaders.

Each band member is not only an accomplished musician but also qualifies for combat with weapon training. In 1991, the band was deployed to southwest Asia and participated in Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

Spectators should bring chairs or blankets to the concert and remove any bottles or trash afterward.

Area Businesses Help With 'Jail-a-Thon'

The South Brunswick Isles Civitan Club, Atlantic Telephone Membership Corporation and Cellular One are sponsoring the American Cancer Society's annual Jail-a-Thon June 29 at the Shallotte National Guard Armory.

For $5 you can have your favorite person "thrown in jail" for the fight against cancer in the American Cancer Society's "Jail and Bail" June 29.

To have someone "arrested," call Herbie Ward at 754-4301 or the American Cancer Society at (910)343-1711.
