

Chorale Prepares For Europe

Members of the N.C. Chorale rehearse at Shallotte Middle School, preparing for a singing tour of Europe that begins June 22. The 18-member group will sing a mostly-American program of sacred and secular music in churches and civic locations in the Netherlands, Belgium, France, Austria and Switzerland, and will also visit Germany. Shown with conductor Frances Marley of Raleigh and Holden Beach are (front, from left) Carmin Leach, Sh-Rhonda Marlowe, Cindy Fenton, Alexis Vaughn, Casey Shockley, Katie Orth; second row, assistant director Atheda Lusk-Watson, Bridgett Williams, Venee Robinson, Anne-Marie Hyatt, assistant director Pattie Jordan; and back row, Andrea Ward, Mekeisha Duncan, Kwabena Green, Marcus Gause, Melissa Robinson and Jennifer Smith. Most of the chorale members are from Brunswick County; six are from elsewhere in North Carolina.

Holden Beach Man Pleads Guilty On Federal Tax Charge

A Holden Beach man has pleaded guilty in federal court to one count of failing to file a federal income tax return, according to a news release from the office of U.S. Attorney Janice McKenzie Cole.

On June 7, Mark David Hiltz pleaded guilty to failure to file a federal income tax return for 1990 for gross earnings in excess of $100,000, the release states. According to the plea agreement filed in open court in Fayetteville, Hiltz also agreed to pay back taxes totaling more than $62,000 for 1987, 1988 and 1989.

As a result of his guilty plea, Hiltz could receive a maximum sentence of one year imprisonment, a $100,000 fine plus costs and a supervised release term of one year.

U.S. Magistrate Judge William N. Mason, who presided at the hearing, has not scheduled a sentencing date.

GED Awards Dinner Slated

A special awards ceremony and banquet is planned in August for Brunswick County residents who are graduates of the GED program at Brunswick Community College.

Slated Aug. 11 in BCC's student center, the event will recognize current and past GED graduates. Advance reservations are requested by those who plan to attend the barbecue dinner.

Awards will be presented in categories that include dependability, outstanding attendance, determination, highest score on GED examination (for each subject and cumulative), those who have continued their education, and others.

Graduates during the 1993-94 academic year will receive a special gift.

To make reservations or for more information contact Rita Ramphal at BCC, 754-6900, 457-6329 or 343-0203, Ext. 387.
