Clemmons Kin To Reunite At Mt. Olive

A reunion of descendants, relatives and friends of the late A.W. and Odell Coleman Clemmons will be held Sunday, July 17, at Mt. Olive Baptist Church of Bolivia.

Moody Clemmons of Clayton will be hosting the seafood dinner in the church fellowship hall at no cost to attendees, in honor of his late parents.

"This is kind of a special thing, a homecoming," he said. "I'm trying to get as many relatives there as I can, and friends of the family too."

Dinner will be served around 12:30 p.m.

For more information contact Moody Clemmons in Clayton at (919)555-6704 or his nephew, A.W. Clemmons of Bolivia, at 253-6313.

Mt. Olive Church is on U.S. 17 Business adjacent to Brunswick Community College.

Frink-Hewett Vows Said In Gatlinburg

Sammie Frink and Audie B. Hewett of Shallotte were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony May 13 in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

The bride is the daughter of Mazie B. Frink of Sunset Beach and the late Sam Fletcher Frink. She is a graduate of West Brunswick High School and attended Southeastern Community College and UNC-Wilmington. She is employed by the Brunswick County Department of Social Services.

The bridegroom is the son of Jean Cavenaugh of Shallotte and the late Lloyd Hewett. He is a West Brunswick High School graduate and is employed by PCI at the Brunswick Nuclear Plant.

Attending the couple were Brenda and Daryl Simmons of Ash and Pam and Mike Nash of Holden Beach.

The bride wore a pearlized lace tea-length dress designed by Kathy White and daughter Dani White of Leland. She carried a bouquet of violets.

The bride was honored with a lingerie shower hosted by Pam Nash and Cathy Sessions at Rosa Linda's. A bridal shower also was hosted by the staff of the Medicare Unit at the Department of Social Services. The family of the bride and groom hosted a shower at the couple's home.

After honeymooning in Gatlinburg, the couple returned to Shallotte Point to live.
