

Second Lakes Fest Set For Saturday

Boiling Spring Lakes will celebrate its second annual Festival of the Lakes on Saturday, July 30, from 9 a.m. until 7 p.m. at the fire hall on N.C. 87 in Boiling Spring Lakes.

Sponsored by the Boiling Spring Lakes Volunteer Fire Department, the rescue squad and the fire and rescue auxiliary, the event is one of the major fund-raising projects of the year.

Joan DeBruhl, chairman of the planning committee, said the event will feature outdoor booths selling hot dogs, coffee, cold and hot drinks, as well as games for children and adults, including either a dunking or pie-throwing booth. Pork barbecue will be offered from 11 a.m. until it is sold out.

In case of rain, the outdoor games will be moved into the new fire hall where the fire engines are housed.

Indoors, in Fire Hall 1, there will be raffles, door prizes, a bake sale, a Chinese auction, craft sale and "oldies and goodies" sale. Boiling Spring Lakes T-shirts and caps will be available.

Residents may bring items for sale to the fire hall either Thursday, July 28, from 1-3 p.m., or Friday, July 29, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Clothing will not be accepted.

Those who need information or help moving large items should call either Joan DeBruhl at (910)845-2690 or Mary Riese at (910)845-2339.

Community College Chiefs Meet At Sunset This Week

Presidents from community colleges across North Carolina began converging on Sunset Beach Wednesday for the summer conference of the North Carolina Association of Community College Presidents at Sea Trail Golf Resort and Conference Center.

Brunswick Community College is hosting the event.

On the presidents' agenda are committee meetings, roundtable discussions, dinners and receptions and a professional development seminar led by organizing consultant Barbara Hemphill, author of Taming the Paper Tiger. She is president of Hemphill and Associates and president of The National Association of Professional Organizers.

Golden Anniversary Aug. 7

M. Leslie and Mildred Bernard will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Aug. 7 with a reception from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the Seaside Station Property Owners Association building on N.C. 179. Friends and relatives are invited; the couple requests no gifts.

PREPARATION HELP AVAILABLE

August GED Test Dates Set

GED test dates for August have been announced by Brunswick Community College for those who wish to complete their high school education.

A GED certificate is considered the equivalent of a high school diploma by a number of employers and schools.

All GED tests except writing will be offered at BCC's Main Campus near Supply Tuesday, Aug. 9, 1 p.m., and Tuesday, Aug. 23, 5 p.m.

The same group of tests will be available at the Southport campus on North Lord Street Wednesday, Aug. 17, 5 p.m., and at the Leland campus in Leland Industrial Park Wednesday, Aug. 17, 9 a.m.

The writing skills test only will be given at the Supply campus Monday, Aug. 1, at 5 p.m.

Any GED test, including writing, may be taken at the Southport campus Thursday, Aug. 4, at 5 p.m., or at the Leland campus Wednesday, Aug. 3, at 9 a.m.

Students may enter a GED class any time at Brunswick Community College. Individualized help in preparing for the GED tests is available at the learning lab in the Administration Building on the main campus at Supply. The lab is open Monday through Thursday. Drop-ins are welcome.

For more information contact BCC at 754-6900, 457-6329 or 343-0203.

Horse Show To Benefit Fire Squad

A two-day horse show to benefit the Little River (S.C.) Fire Department is scheduled for Aug. 6 and 7 at Peachtree Equestrian Center on Hickman Road, Calabash.

Equestrians will compete for an estimated $3,000 in cash and prizes. Events will include halter, Western, English, jumping, racking and games.
