Holbert-Trively Vows Are Spoken In Virginia

Elizabeth Anne Holbert and Martin Churchill Trively were united in marriage in a 1 p.m. ceremony July 9 at Pohick Episcopal Church in Lorton, Va.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Holbert of Mt. Lebanon, Pa. Her grandmother, Mrs. C. Rob Holbert, lived in Calabash from 1983 until 1994. The bride also worked in Calabash two summers.

The groom's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Timothy C. Trively of Tampa, Fla. The groom's father, along with the Rev. Marcia Sessions, presided over the wedding ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white cotton brocade dress fashioned by her mother. It featured a princess bodice with Basque waistline, open front and back necklines adorned with Venetian lace, a lace-covered collar and very full elbow-length sleeves. The self-train was adorned with a rosette-topped bow and lace-trimmed drape. Her veil was shoulder-length with a lace headpiece.

She carried a cascading bouquet of pink and gerber daisies, purple and white roses, baby's breath and greenery.

Matron of honor was Tracey Rhodes Parker of Norman, Okla. Bridesmaids were Elizabeth Leigh Sinnett of Carson City, N.J., and Laura Rhodes Clarke of Birmingham, Ala. All are the bride's cousins. They wore mid-calf-length princess dresses of deep lilac cotton damask with necklines trimmed in Venetian lace.

Best man was the groom's brother, Winston Elliot Trively of Banner Elk. Ushers were William Sean Jarvis of Springfield, Va., and Kevin Lyn of Durham.

A reception followed the ceremony at Guston Hall in Mason Neck, Va. After a honeymoon in Costa Rica, the couple will make their home in Cary.

The bride is an applications engineer for MTS Sintech of Cary. She earned her bachelor's degree in engineering from the University of Pittsburgh and in 1992 was awarded a master's degree in engineering management from George Washington University.

The bridegroom is an engineer for the U.S. Army. He is a 1983 graduate of the North Carolina School of Science and Math. He earned his B.S. in engineering in 1987 from Duke University and in 1992 was also awarded a master's degree in engineering management from George Washington University.

Ceremony Aug. 13

Donnie and Essie Fowler of Ash have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Rosanna Fowler, to Gregory Chuck Strickland, son of William Howell Strickland of Fair Bluff and the grandson of Pittman and Ruth Strickland of Cerro Gordo. The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Elwood and Eva Mae Fowler of Ash, John Wesley Price of Whiteville and the late Myrtle Idell Price. The couple will wed Aug. 13 in a 7 p.m. ceremony at Myrtle Head Baptist Church in Ash. Friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

Wedding Aug. 13

Mr. and Mrs. Toby Lewis of Ash and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Robinson of Supply have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Kimberly Ann Robinson, to Leamon Waddell Clemmons Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Waddell Clemmons of Supply. The wedding will take place Aug. 13 at 6 p.m. at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church. Friends and family of the couple are invited.

Zink

Christopher N. and Malissa Jewel Zink of Ash are the parents of a son, Justin Allen Zink, born July 28 at 6:45 p.m.

He weighed 7 pounds, 2 ounces, and was 20 inches long on arrival at The Brunswick Hospital. He joins one sibling, Bianca Jewel Norris.

Grandparents are Larry and Clara Norris of Ash and James and Clara Zink, also of Ash.

Andrew and Ethel Norris of Ash are his great-grandparents.

Johnson

Teresa Hewett and Samuel Johnson of Shallotte are the parents of an 8-pound, 4-ounce boy, Anthony Dewayne Johnson, born July 28 at 8:08 p.m. in The Brunswick Hospital.

He joins a sister, Kimberly Diane. Grandparents are Margaret and Perry Moss of Shallotte Point and Bernice Hewett of Southport.

Estelle Christmas of Shallotte Point is his great-grandmother.

Foundation 'Extravaganza' Chance To Give And Receive

Call it a win-win situation. Brunswick Community College's Foundation is offering college supporters a chance to receive something for their gift to the college.

An "Evening Extravaganza" is planned Friday, Aug. 12 at the Sea Trail Plantation Pavilion beginning at 6:30 p.m.

For the $100 admission price donors receive admission for two for an evening of elegant hors d'oeuvres, silent and live auctions and an opportunity to win a 1994 Jeep Wrangler 4 X 4. The vehicle is on display at Naber Chrysler, Jeep, Eagle in Shallotte.

The benefit will support scholarship and educational programs of the BCC Foundation.

Only 300 of these $100 tickets will be sold, according to Dianne Ledbetter, foundation director. To reserve a ticket contact her at 754-6900, 343-0203 or 457-6329, Ext. 910.
