

Hugh McCullough Wins Brierwood President's Cup Tournament For Men

Hugh McCullough was the overall winner of the President's Cup Tournament, a two-week match play event sponsored by the Brierwood Men's Golf Association.

The tournament concluded Aug. 13 with McCullough shooting net 74 to defeat flight winners Gene Loflin and Bob Sterner in a stroke play playoff.

The men's association also held a captain's choice to close out the tournament. First place went to Dave Harper, Jack Causer, John Martocci and Dick Anzelone with 64.

The team of Jim Crosby, Bill Polson, Bill Grossman and Emile Vrydaghs placed second with 66, followed by Neal McCall, Ron McCall, Bill Rose and Ted Narazinski with 67.

In the regular Brierwood men's event last Thursday, two teams tied for first place with scores of 121 using a two best ball format.

Bill Miller, Bernie Gruzlewski, Emile Vrydaghs and Miles Umberger tied the foursome of Neal McCall, Jack Causer, Bill Pingo and Norm Soucie.

On Aug. 15, the team of Jim Crosby, Mike Prokop, Barney Martin and Rick Rickbeil shot 18-under-par 118 to win a two best ball event.

Don Redding, Joe Distl, Miles Umberger and Alton Gabor shot 123 and tied for second with Neal McCall, Ron McCall, Ted Narazinski and a blind draw.

Brick Landing Women

Ruth Gardner and Peg Agrimonti took first place in the Brick Landing Plantation Women's Golf Association shootout last Thursday.

Ursula Styczynski and Sue Houston placed second, followed by Marion Rhoads and Betty Bonniol.

Chipping in for birdie were Gardner at the second hole and Peg Campana at the fifth. Rhoads birdied the first hole and Vivian Rowe chipped in at 14.

Carolina Shores Ladies

Ginnie Derrickson shot net 27 to lead the top flight in the Carolina Shores Ladies Golf Association crossover tournament last Thursday. Ellen Rose placed second with net 29.

Flight B winners were Blanche Johnson with 30.5 and Dottie Russo with 33.5. In Flight C, Helen Marsh led the way with net 29. She was followed by Joan O'Neill with 29.5.

Carolyn D'Avanzo won Flight D with net 24, and Marge Schober was second with 27.5.

Reporting chip-ins were Shirley Vazquez at the first hole, Gerry Burdick at the fourth, Joan Sullivan at the 11th and Russo at the 14th.

Marsh made a birdie at the second hole.

Betty Kibblehouse had the low gross of 90 and low putts with 30. Sea Trail Men Doug Mehne, Bob Erbach and Lynn Slimmer shot 121 to win the Sea Trail Men's Golf Association tournament last Tuesday. A blind draw was used for the fourth score.

Finishing one stroke back in second place was the team of Don Cooper, Joe Carpinello, Bill Burkart and a blind draw.

Ron Otten, Jim Fernald, Bill Zanzalari and Dutch Geesey placed third with 122, followed by John Murphy, Bud Tunt, Clarence Brown and Bob Bobinski with 127.

Finishing fifth, also with 127, was the foursome of Don Lowensten, John Gregory, Gene Connelly and Ken Harris.

Closest-to-the-pin winners were Herb Klapp at the second hole, Gene Bilz at the fifth, Connelly at the 13th and Marv Peters at the 17th.

Brierwood Ladies

Nancy Bouldin shot gross 81 to lead the first flight in the Brierwood Ladies Golf Association tournament last Tuesday.

Low net winners in the top flight included Betty Gabor with 66 and Marje Roach with 69. Bouldin had low putts in the flight with 27.

In the second flight, Lois Beato had the low gross of 89 and Ruth Linder fired the low net of 67. Helene Baker placed second with net 70. Beato had low putts with 27.

Carolyn McCroskey and Jane Flieg tied for low gross in the third flight with rounds of 102. Louise Blizzard posted the low net of 73 and also had low putts with 29.

Fourth flight winners included Marion Rockstroh and Alice Struck, who tied with gross 108. Ginny Anzelone had the low net of 77. Dodie Niland had low putts with 31.

Chipping in for birdie last week were Joan Cowie at the ninth hole, Roach at the 10th and Bouldin at the 16th.

Also making chip-ins were Blizzard at the first and 12th holes, Ginny Campbell at the first, Anzelone at the third and Marie Brown at the 18th.

Gabor's round of 84 included birdies at the third, sixth, 14th and 17th holes. Also carding birdies were Ginny Cambett at the first, Baker at the ninth and Ginger Sugrue at the 11th.

Ruth's Renegades

Members of Ruth's Renegades counted scores on odd-numbered holes only and used half handicaps in their weekly tournament last Thursday at Bay Tree and Brierwood.

At Bay Tree, top finishers were Karen Mugridge with net 32.5 and Ruth Brown and Jane Mahncke with scores of 36.5.

Brown chipped in at the fourth hole and birdied the 17th. Also making chip-ins were Laura Paliwoda at the second and Mugridge at the 14th.

Top finishers at Brierwood included Elizabeth Carter with 27.5, Alice Struck with 27.5 and Evelyn Wutrich with 28.5.

Reporting chip-ins were Jenny Ward at the fifth hole and Dot Frey at the ninth.

Sea Trail Ladies

Joan Worley took first place in the Sea Trail Ladies Golf Association "tee to green" tournament last Wednesday.

Carol Patridge and Eleanor Conboy tied for second place. Tied for third were Carol Klapp, Betty Halloran, Ann Otten and Barbara Plate.

Brierwood Scramble

Hollen Groff, Bob Sterner, Janice Owens and Dede Havenga shot 4-under-par 32 to win the nine-hole mixed scramble last Wednesday at Brierwood.

Finishing one stroke back in second place was the team of Jim Roach, Alton Gabor, Alice Micali and Irene Bryant.

Brunswick County Golf Courses Hosting DuPont World Amateur

Nine Brunswick County golf courses will help host the DuPont World Amateur Handicap Championship, which begins Monday, Aug. 29, and continues through Thursday, Sept. 1.

The annual four-day tournament will bring more than 3,550 amateur golfers to the Myrtle Beach, S.C., area from 49 states and 21 foreign countries.

Brick Landing, The Gauntlet at St. James Plantation, Ocean Harbour, The Pearl's west course, Lion's Paw, Sea Trail's Byrd course, Lockwood Links, Brunswick Plantation and Carolina Shores are among more than 50 courses that are hosting the event.

The World Amateur is open to any amateur golfer with a verifiable 18-hole USGA handicap or foreign equivalent.

The field will be broken into 38 flights with approximately 100 players in each flight.

Each flight winner will receive prizes and trophies, and flight winners will compete for the world championship in a one-day playoff Friday, Sept. 2, at the Dunes Club.

New this year is a golf Expo featuring more than 70 exhibits of products and services available to golfers in the Myrtle Beach area. It will be open to the public Wednesday, Aug. 31, from 8:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the Myrtle Beach Convention Center.

Proceeds from the tournament will benefit the National Institute for Burn Medicine and the Don Shula Foundation for breast cancer research.
