Trial Lawyers Endorse Redwine

State Rep. David Redwine has received the endorsement of the N.C. Academy of Trial Lawyers Political Action Committee for representative in the District 14 election. The announcement was made by Attorney Roy D. Trest of Shallotte, a member of the board of governors of the N.C. Academy of Trial Lawyers.

Academy General Counsel Mary Ann Tally said endorsements are based on candidates' records and platforms.

Tiny Miss Winner

Shirley Amanda Hanes was named Tiny Miss Brunswick County Princess in a recent pageant.

Amanda is the five-year-old daughter of John and Alynne Hanes of Shallotte. She won her title and her talent division in the Aug. 13 pageant at O d e l l Williamson Auditorium.

She sang, "I Have Decided to Follow Jesus." She will compete in the state pageant next year.

Back From Haiti

Navy Seaman Kenneth A. Moore recently returned from operations off the coast of Haiti aboard the amphibious command ship USS Mount Whitney, flagship for the U.S. Second Fleet, homeported in Norfolk, Va.

Moore is the son of Preston K. Moore of Clearview Drive, Southport.

While deployed, USS Mount Whitney served as the command and control center for the task force commander in charge of Operations Support Democracy, the United Nations sanctions aimed at restoring democracy to Haiti.

Moore is a 1992 graduate of South Brunswick High School. He joined the Navy in March 1993.

Picked For Who's Who

Sally Jo Schutte of Supply has been nominated for the fourth consecutive year to have her biography published in Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1993-94.

Schutte is a 1994 graduate of West Brunswick High School and is currently a freshman at Lees-MacRae College in Banner Elk. She is the daughter of Stephen and Connie Schutte.

She will be eligible to apply for a $1,000 scholarship from $125,000 to be awarded this year.
