Fowler-Strickland Wedding Takes Place At Myrtle Head

Rosanna Fowler became the bride of Gregory Chuck Strickland in a 7 p.m. ceremony Aug. 13 at Myrtle Head Baptist Church in Ash with the Rev. David Todd of Whiteville officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Fowler of Ash. She is a West Brunswick High School graduate and is employed by the Department of Aging in Whiteville.

The groom is the son of Howell Strickland of Fair Bluff. He was graduated from West Columbus High School and Southeastern Community College and is employed by United Carolina Bank in Whiteville.

The bride wore a V-neck and V-back gown overlaid with lace and adorned with sequins and pearls. It featured long sleeves, dropped shoulders and a skirt overlaid with lace and bows with hanging pearls. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley with pearls.

Maid of honor was the bride's cousin, Sarah Ward of Shell Point. She wore a gown of fuchsia Bengaline with pearls at the neckline, large bow in back, high-low skirt and dropped shoulders. She carried three roses tied with a ribbon.

Bridesmaids were the bride's aunts, Brenda Ward of Ash and Sheila Price of Whiteville, and her cousin, Breann Ward of Ash. They wore gowns of fuchsia satin with high-low skirts, puffed sleeves, large bows in back and small bows on their sleeves. Each carried three roses tied with ribbons.

Junior bridesmaids were the bride's cousins, Stephanie and Meagan Price of Whiteville. Flower girl was Jennifer Price of Whiteville, also a cousin of the bride. They wore white satin dresses with lace and pearls on the bodices, ruffled sleeves and skirts with bows in back. The junior bridesmaids each carried two roses tied with ribbons.

Best man was Howell Strickland, the bridegroom's father. Groomsmen were Tony Strickland of Fair Bluff, brother of the groom; Chris Fowler of Ash, brother of the bride; and Shannon Strickland of Fair Bluff. Ring-bearer was Jonathan Price of Whiteville, the bride's cousin.

A program of wedding music was provided by Rhonda Benton, pianist and soloist. Wedding director was Mary Lois Vereen of Ash. The bride's cousin, Jimmy Price of Whiteville, presided over the guest register, and another cousin, Jeff Fowler of Ash, handed out programs.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony.

Porterfield-Smallwood Vows Said On Oak Island

Paula Bená Porterfield and William Todd Smallwood, both of Long Beach, were united in marriage Saturday, Sept. 10, in a 7 p.m. double-ring ceremony at Oak Island Presbyterian Church, presided over by the Rev. Richard DePruiter of Fayetteville.

The bride is the daughter of Gail S. Hatley of Long Beach and Donald R. Porterfield of Marion, S.C. She holds an associate degree in dental hygiene from Central Piedmont Community College and is employed as a dental hygienist in Raleigh.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Boyce Smallwood of Long Beach. He has a bachelor of science degree in business administration and is employed by Thompson Dental Company in Raleigh.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white gown of bridal satin with a Sabrina neckline and leg-of-mutton sleeves. Appliques of sequins and seed pearls embellished the gown, along with an attached chapel train which featured a large bow at the waist. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Matron of honor was Kim Creger of Troy. Bridesmaids were Monica Baldwin of North Wilkesboro, Laura Bame of Charlotte, Paula Kimball of Winston-Salem and Leigh Walker of Long Beach.

The bridal attendants wore ice pink suits with jacket-style tops with pleated shoulders, square necklines and pearl buttons leading to fitted waistlines accented with pink lace appliques. Fitted calf-length skirts completed their suits. They carried bouquets of white orchids, roses and carnations with ivy and pink streamers.

Boyce Smallwood served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were Ray Smallwood, the groom's brother, of Long Beach; Ric Porterfield, the bride's brother, of Long Beach; Mike Cierpiot of Boiling Spring Lakes, Corey Winston of Richmond, Va., Reed Thomas of Hassell and B.J. Averett of Florence, S.C.

Wedding music was provided by Greg Walker, pianist and organist; Cathy Furpless, pianist; and Spencer and Cynthia Smith, vocalists.

Bridal showers were hosted by Dean Mason of Supply, Sandra Mullins of Wilmington and the employees of Dr. John Madison and Dr. John Ward of Shallotte.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hatley, the bride's mother and stepfather. After a week-long wedding trip to Jamaica, the couple will make their home in Raleigh.

Tommy Dorsey Orchestra Starts Southeastern Series

Buddy Morrow will conduct the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra in the first concert of Southeastern Community College's 1994-95 Performing Arts Series on Tuesday, Sept. 20.

Connecticut native Morrow has been a featured musician with the bands of Tommy Dorsey, Paul Whiteman, Artie Shaw and Jimmy Dorsey. He also has been a staff musician with such productions as the "Tonight Show" and the "Arthur Godfrey Radio Show."

The modern Tommy Dorsey orchestra's repertoire includes the original big band's tunes plus popular music from Dixieland rhythm and blues and ballads to progressive jazz and current rock tunes. Some selections to be performed are "On the Sunny Side of the Street," "Stardust" and "Night Train," which was recorded by the Buddy Morrow Orchestra, a group Morrow formed years ago.

The performance begins at 8 p.m. at the Bowers Cultural Arts Center at Whiteville High School. Admission is by SCC Performing Arts Series season ticket, which may be purchased at the door, or by $10 single-event ticket.

Season tickets for the eight-event series are $40. Senior citizens age 65 and older receive a $1 discount on individual event tickets, or $5 off season ticket prices.

For tickets or information, call series director Richard Burkhardt at SCC, (910)642-7141.

Skipper-Evans Vows Said

Krisinda Rose Skipper and Adam Ken Evans were married at 4 p.m. Aug. 6 in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Their vows were spoken before David Leggett, branch president. The bride is the daughter of Wycuff and Quintina Skipper of Stanbury Road. The groom's parents are Waddell and Wanda Evans of Exum.

Courses Offered In Calligraphy

Brunswick Community College's Community Services Department will offer courses in calligraphy and stained glass this fall.

The eight-week calligraphy classes will begin Sept. 22 and continue through Nov. 10, with each session lasting from 6:30 until 9 p.m. The course will be taught by Catherine Langsdorf in Room 138 of the BCC Campus in Southport.

The self-supporting class will cost $30 per person plus a $15 supply fee.

Two stained glass classes have already begun. The 12-week sessions are being taught by Ed Simpson at the Calabash Volunteer Fire Department on Mondays and Wednesdays from 1-4 p.m. Fee is $36.

For information on any of the classes, call BCC at 754-6922.
