

Supply Resident Guilty Of Hitting Man In Nose With Shotgun

A 41-year-old Cedar Grove man was given a suspended sentence and was ordered to pay the medical expenses of a man he hit in the face with the butt of a shotgun after pleading guilty to a reduced charge in Brunswick County District Court last week.

Lloyd Atlee Fullwood of Cedar Grove Road, Supply, had been charged with felony assault with a deadly weapon, inflicting serious injury by hitting Edward Earl Hewett "in his nose, opening wounds and causing injuries requiring emergency room treatment," according to the warrant issued upon his arrest Aug. 28.

Fullwood was found guilty of misdemeanor assault, inflicting serious injury. He was also convicted of assault on a female for "hitting her on the arm with the butt of a shot gun and hitting her about the head with his fists," with assault by pointing a gun and with communicating threats for telling her, "I'm going to blow your brains out."

Judge Jerry Jolly combined the cases for judgment and sentenced Fullwood to two years in prison, suspended on the condition that he pay court costs and not go near his wife, except in the course of exchanging children. Fullwood was told not to go near Hewett and to pay his medical expenses. Fullwood was put on supervised probation.

Judge Jolly presided over three days of district court last week. District Attorney Rex Gore and assistant D.A. Lillian Salcines prosecuted, while Marie Jordan served as courtroom clerk.
