Supply Club And Clara Schuster Honored By Extension Homemakers

Supply Extension Homemakers Club and one of its members, Clara Schuster, earned top honors last Friday at the Brunswick County Extension Homemakers Association's 1994 annual achievement program.

The program, held at the Lockwood Folly Community Building in Supply, also featured installation of 1994-95 officers by District Advisor Eleanor Hoff and exhibits and information for prospective members.

Supply Club President Pat Nash accepted the Club of the Year Award sponsored by Brunswick Electric Membership Corp. During the past year the club has helped its local fire department, rescue squad, nursing homes, Hospice, Boys and Girls Home, the Volunteer & Information Center and The Brunswick Hospital with money, gifts and their time, as well as contributing to council-sponsored events such as Quilt Show '94, the cultural arts show and the international program on Africa.

A literacy project the club began—providing books for newborns and their mothers at The Brunswick Hospital—has grown to become a county Extension Homemakers council project carried out in cooperation with the Brunswick County Literacy Council.

Fellow club member Maxine Hampton accepted the Member of the Year Award in Schuster's place. The award is presented annually by Atlantic Telephone Membership Corp.

Schuster was recognized for her involvement in extension homemakers at the club level and beyond, in both educational and service activities. Because of her extensive time commitment to extension work she was nominated from Brunswick County for the district Volunteers in Extension Education Programs award this past year.

Other nominees were LaVerne Thomas, Beachcombers Club, and Elizabeth Trenton, Boiling Spring Lakes.

Five members were recognized for 10 or more years of perfect attendance: Pat Nash and Helyn Phillips, 10; Thelma Dunn and Lucile Kirby, 14; and Edith Pigott, 15.

Officers for 1994-95 are Pat Collins, president; Lena Mintz, first vice president; Jean Mearns, second

West Students Attend HOSA Officer Training Workshop

West Brunswick High School's Health Occupation Students of America (HOSA) chapter attended an officer training workshop Oct. 15 at East Carolina University.

Attending were Jessica Robertson, Jennifer Polomis, Chrissy Parsons, Jonathan Faulk, Sam Spayd, Amelia Hewett, Holly Clemmons, April Mintz, Chad Smith, Rachel Swain and Advisor Jeanette Mintz. The Executive Council participated in leadership and team-building activities along with 400 other HOSA students from eastern North Carolina.

Regional elections were held and Chad Smith, a junior from West Brunswick, was elected as regional historian.

Rachel Swain was elected last spring as the vice president of the Southeast Region and helped to implement the training sessions.

REPEAT DIALING

End the Pain of Redialing Busy Numbers

How many times have you dialed a number only to hear a "busy" signal? So you sit there and dial again. And again. And again.

With REPEAT DIALING, you simply dial a code and your phone dials the last number you called. If the line is busy, REPEAT DIALING continues to dial until it gets through, then lets you know it has.

With REPEAT DIALING, you don't have to sit by the phone to keep dialing. REPEAT DIALING does it for you.

CALL RETURN

End the Annoyance of Missed Phone Calls

How many times have you rushed to a ringing phone—dripping wet from the shower or with a path of groceries strewn behind you—only to hear dialtone?

With CALL RETURN, all you do is dial a code and your phone dials the number of the party who last called you. No more frantic rushes to answer the phone or wondering whether that missed call was the sweepstakes or Prince Charming.

End the annoyance of missed phone calls with CALL RETURN.
