

MRS. KELVIN B. HEWETT
...Pamela L. Todd

Todd-Hewett Vows Said At Letties Grove

Pamela L. Todd and Kelvin B. Hewett, both of Shallotte, were married Sept. 24 at Letties Grove Church in Shallotte. The double-ring ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Dwight Reeves.

The bride is the daughter of William Arlee and Loretta Todd of Shallotte. She is employed at Brunswick Surveying Inc. in Holden Beach.

The groom is the son of Gerald and Faye Hewett of Calabash. He is employed at Atlantic Telephone in Shallotte.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white gown with V-neck and V-back overlaid with lace and adorned with sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of roses accented with pearls and ivy.

Matron of honor was Karen Stanley of Shallotte, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Colette Pullen of Holden Beach, Jennifer Sanders of Calabash and Cheryl Lee of Holden Beach. They wore floral pastel tea-length dresses with scalloped features and bows in the back. Each carried a bouquet of roses accented with pearls.

Flower girl was Randa Stanley of Brickland, daughter of Randy and Wanda Stanley. She wore a long white satin gown with lace, sequins and pearls.

Gerald Hewett, father of the groom, served as best man. The groom wore a solid white vested tuxedo with full-length tails. Groomsmen were Terry Hewett of Calabash, brother of the groom; Paul Clewis of Ash; and Jeremy Stanley of Brickland, nephew of the couple. Ringbearer was Paul (Buddy) Clewis Jr., son of Paul Clewis of Ash. Each wore a white tuxedo with powder blue cummerbund.

Wedding music was provided by Tamala Grimes, pianist, and Chris Stanley, soloist. Wedding director was Gail Beck of Holden Beach. Register attendant was Suzanne Fazekas of Shallotte.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. After a week-long honeymoon trip to the mountains, the couple returned to live at Brickland.

Shallotte Squadron Benefit Yard Sale Set For Nov. 5

The Shallotte River Power Squadron's benefit yard sale is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 5 from 8 a.m. until noon.

Location will be in the parking area of Brunswick Building Supplies on Highway 179 between Ocean Isle and Sunset Beach.

Items to sell are solicited from squadron members the public. Anyone with items to donate is asked to call Danny Hooven, yard sale chairman, at 579-0604.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to help further boating safety and education in Brunswick County, said Hooven. "There will be many interesting articles on sale, so come early and stay late," he invited.

Other members of the committee are Joe Huber and Squadron Commander Dewey Adams.

Lowman-Safrit Wedding Takes Place In Salisbury

Patti Shue Lowman of Woodleaf became the bride of Lewis Ray Safrit of Salisbury in a 3 p.m. double-ring ceremony Oct. 23 at Christiana Lutheran Church in Salisbury. The Rev. Carl Haynes officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mavis G. Shue of Salisbury and R. Wayne Shue of Chattanooga, Tenn. The bridegroom's parents are Don R. and Theresa Safrit of Ocean Isle Beach.

The bride is a graduate of East Rowan High School and is employed by Coca Cola Consolidated of Hickory. The bridegroom is a graduate of East Rowan High School and Central Piedmont Community College. He is employed by Camden Wire of Salisbury.

The bride wore an ivory shantung silk gown with full skirt and waistline accented in back with a bow and silk roses. It featured an off-the-shoulder design with additional roses on each shoulder. The bride designed and created her veil, a three-tier short length of netting edged with lace made by her grandmother. It attached to a silk bow with roses and pearls nestled in the center. She carried a cascade bouquet of silk ivory roses, babies breath, lilies of the valley and ivy.

The bride's daughters, Kelly and Lyndsay Lowman, were maids of honor. They wore satin floor-length gowns of crimson/wine satin with off-the-shoulder design and ivory lace adorning the shoulder areas. The carried cascades of ivy, babies breath and burgundy and ivory tiger lilies.

Bridesmaids were Robin Wilhite, sister of the bride, of Gold Hill; Charlea Safrit, sister-in-law of the groom, of China Grove; Toni Klutz of Woodleaf; and Linda Shue, sister-in-law of the bride, of Salisbury. Their gowns and flowers were identical to that of the honor attendants.

Flower girl was Katelyn Patterson of Salisbury. Ringbearer was Hunter Shue, the bride's nephew, of Salisbury.

Don R. Safrit served as his son's best man. Ushers were Greg Safrit, brother of the groom, of China Grove; Mark Shue, brother of the bride, of Salisbury; Gilbert Russell, Kyle Fuller and Dean Griffin, all of Salisbury.

Wedding music was provided by the bride's aunt, organist Yvonne Yost of China Grove. Soloist was Judy Klutz of Salisbury.

After a honeymoon at Cataloochee in the North Carolina mountains, the couple will return to Salis-

MRS. LEWIS RAY SAFRIT
...Pattie Shue Lowman

bury to live.

Pre-Nuptial Parties
The bride was honored with household showers by Christiana Lutheran Church and Unity Presbyterian Church of Woodleaf.

Loris Church Is Site Of Lee-Clark Wedding

Jodi Lynn Lee and W. Marcus Clark, both of Greenville, were married Oct. 15 at Grace Tabernacle in Loris, S.C. The Rev. Owen Johnson officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Lee of Little River, S.C. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. E.V. Gore of Ocean Isle Beach. She is a graduate of Grace Christian School in Loris and attended Coker College in Hartsville, S.C. She is a graduate of Avant-Garde College of Cosmetology and is employed by George's Hair Design in Greenville.

The bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Owen Johnson of Loris, S.C., and Mr. and Mrs. W. Alford Clark of Greensboro. He graduated from Grace Christian School in Loris, attended Coastal Carolina University and is currently a student at East Carolina University.

The bride wore a formal gown of white satin featuring basque bodice, illusion neckline and leg-'o-mutton sleeves accented with Alencon lace sprinkled with pearls and sequins. The skirt had gentle gathers accented with an oversized bow in back flowing into a cathedral-length train with Alencon lace cutouts with pearls and sequins. Her headpiece was a spray of pearls and sequins attached to a fingertip-length veil of illusion.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Barbara Lee of New Orleans, La. Bridesmaids were Leasa Clark of Charlotte, Westie Vaught of Loris and Lorie Lamb of Myrtle Beach. They wore formal gowns fashioned of frosted faille fabric in hunter green. Their gowns featured V-necklines, shirred elbow-length sleeves, and straight floor-length skirts.

The groom's father served as best man. Groomsmen were Bobby McElveen of Loris, James Lee of Little River and Jason Johnson of Loris.

Sandra Jones sang "The Lord's Prayer." Billy Staub was wedding director. Diane McElveen was wedding director. Guest book registrars were Amy McElveen and Dean Strevel.

A reception was held in Grace Fellowship Hall. After a wedding trip to Disney World, the couple returned to make their home in Greenville.

MRS. W. MARCUS CLARK
...Jodi Lynn Lee

Brown Reunion Set For Saturday

The family of the late Alford Brown will hold its seventh Brown reunion beginning at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Brunswick County Fishing Club, Sunset Harbor.

Dinner will be served about 12:30 p.m. Participants are being asked to bring a covered dish. Drinks will be furnished.

For more information, call Betty Rayl at 253-5931 or Donald Brown at (910)799-1323.

Novelties by the Sea

Pecan Resin Outlet

Stop by on your way to the Festival by the Sea and check out our specials!

10-25% off unfinished figurines

15% off painted figurines

Good October 26-30

Located at Shallotte Antique Mall & Flea Market

Hwy 130, Holden Beach Road • Shallotte

©1994 THE BRUNSWICK BEACON

Tom Rabon
District 4 Commissioner
Honest
Conservative
Responsive

PAID BY THE CANDIDATE

Call our toll free number for our new catalog!

Our catalog features select items from our store...
a great way to find the perfect Christmas gift.

1-800-414-2450

Outside Brunswick County

We ship anywhere!

The Potter's Wheel

A Gallery of Fine Gifts
On the Holden Beach Causeway

842-2450

©1994 THE BRUNSWICK BEACON

Spectacular Sidewalk Sale!!

Saturday, October 29th

10 AM-4 PM

KERR
DRUG STORE

CARSON
CARDS & GIFTS

Hundreds of Items To Clear Out!!

Hurry For Great Selections

Twin Creek Plaza, Shallotte