Miss Mintz Is 105

Friends and family members gathered Friday at Autumn Care in Shallotte to help oldest resident Mina Mintz celebrate her 105th birthday. She had just returned from Duke University Medical Center, where she successfully underwent cancer surgery. Miss Mintz was born Oct. 28, 1889, near Grissetown, and credits her long life to a variety of reasons, including "loving everybody."

Grand Strand To Sponsor Seminar On Alzheimer's

Grand Strand Regional Medical Center will sponsor a seminar on Alzheimer's disease on Thursday, Nov. 17, from 3:30-4:30 p.m. at the Grand Strand Senior Center, 21st Avenue North in Myrtle Beach.

Guest speaker will be John E. Rathbun, M.D., a local internist and member of the hospital's medical staff since 1991. He will discuss the causes, early signs and treatments of Alzheimer's.

The seminar is free and open to the public. "Anyone interested in learning more about Alzheimer's is invited and encouraged to attend," said Joan E. Carroza, the hospital's marketing director.

Reservations are necessary and can be made by calling the hospital's Community Health Services Department at (803)650-6830.

CLUB BRIEFS

Christmas In Carolina

The Holden Beach Beautification Club will meet Wednesday, Nov. 9, at 10 a.m. in the Holden Beach Town Hall meeting room. Myra Burke will preside at the business meeting.

The program will be entitled "Christmas in Carolina." Members are being asked to bring their favorite handmade Christmas decoration for "show and tell."

Hostesses for the meeting will be Phyllis Noah, Priscilla Pohl, Mardy Sellers and Martha Spivey.

Membership in the club is open to all residents of Holden Beach. For additional information about membership and group activities, call membership chairman Ruth Roose at 842-3899.

AARP To Meet

Calabash Chapter 3640, American Association of Retired Persons, will meet Nov. 3 at 7 p.m. in the Calabash firehouse on Persimmon Road.

The evening's program will be highlighted with a slide presentation by George McDaniel representing the N.C. Museum of Art. The program relates to the birth of Christ and will include slides of paintings and sculptures from the museum's collection.

Three local musicians—Mark Christy, Chris Stanley and Jim Cox—will present a collection of traditional and original Christmas songs.

The evening will conclude with a short business meeting followed by refreshments. Guests are welcome, said Tony Santino, publicity chair.

RSP Meeting Set

The Brunswick County Retired School Personnel will hold their monthly meeting at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 8, at Kirby's Sizzlin Sirloin Steak House, Shallotte.

Speaker will be the vice president of N.C. Retired School Personnel.

Southport-Oak Island Area Announces Holiday Happenings

The Southport-Oak Island area will celebrate Christmas by the Sea with various holiday events, beginning with a hometown parade.

Music, homemade floats, beauty queens, horses, fire trucks and a group of animated character will highlight "A Christmas Fantasy" parade, which steps off at 3 p.m. Dec. 3 traveling Yaupon Drive in Yaupon Beach to Middleton Park on Oak Island Drive in Long Beach. Leading the parade will be Bob Townsend, WECT-TV newsmen, as grand marshal.

A silent auction will take place Dec. 3 from 10-11:45 a.m. at the Long Beach Fire Station. Local merchants have donated items to be bid upon. Proceeds from the auction benefit the festival.

On Sunday, Dec. 4, the Oak Island Beautification Club will conduct a tour of Oak Island Homes, beginning with refreshments and entertainment at the Long Beach Recreation Center. The tour will take place from 1-5 p.m.

On Dec. 10 downtown Southport will be the homes tour site. Luminaries and white lights will turn Southport's historic district and waterfront into a winter wonderland. The tour begins at the Franklin Square Art Gallery and will run from 5-9 p.m. Proceeds benefit Southport 2000 Inc., a downtown revitalization group.

On Dec. 11, the Sea Notes will perform in concert at 3 p.m. at the Southport Community Building, singing traditional Christmas songs. Donations will be accepted.

The Best Decorated Home Contest and Business Viewing will be Friday, Dec. 16, through Sunday, Dec. 18, from 7-9:30 p.m. nightly.

On Dec. 17 the Port Charlie's Holiday Boat Flotilla, a lighted boat parade, will float past Southport's waterfront at 7 p.m.

Other events will include a community church service, Brunswick County Band concert, merchant open houses and extended hours, and a Brunswick Town/Fort Anderson Christmas celebration.

For more information, contact the Southport-Oak Island Chamber of Commerce at (910)457-6964, 1-800-457-6964, 4841 Long Beach Road SE, Southport NC 28461.
