

New Optimist Officers

Chosen new South Brunswick Islands Optimist Club officers for the year beginning Oct. 1 are (from left) Tammy Gore, secretary-treasurer; Kitty Shore, vice president; Sara Estep, president; and Jana Martin, vice-president. The club, chartered in September 1992, has conducted oratorical contests and bicycle safety and "Respect for Law" programs as well as distributing water safety tip sheets throughout the community. The club's latest project is an essay contest for students in grades 10-12 on the theme, "Freedom—Our Most Precious Heritage." The Optimists meet on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

Special Performance

Shallotte Ladies Barbership Chorus, led by director Sue Houston (at left) gives a special performance at First Baptist Church in Shallotte as part of the South Brunswick Islands Optimist Club's membership drive dinner. The chorus is open to new members. Interested persons should call Pat Taylor at 754-2427.

CLUB BRIEFS

New Shrine Club To Be Chartered

In ceremonies scheduled for Friday at Lion's Paw Golf Club, Bobby C. Dixon, Potentate of Sudan Temple, will present a charter to the newly formed South Brunswick Islands Shrine Club, to become the Sudan Temple's 42nd Shrine Club.

Steve Norris, the club's first president, will accept the charter authorizing the new group to begin its cooperative effort supporting Shriners Hospitals for Crippled and Burned Children.

Shriners across North America, Panama and the Philippines support 22 hospitals for children who need free expert medical care. Of these, 19 are orthopedic units and three are burn centers. The closest is in Greenville, S.C.

This year's hospital budget is $394 million. The entire cost of care for more than 450,000 children has been paid by the Shrine of North America.

Dixon said anyone who knows of a child in need of Shriners' free medical care should call any local Shriner or the Sudan Temple at (919)637-5197.

Oldham To Speak

Anita Oldham, executive director of the Brunswick County Volunteer and Information Center, will be guest speaker at the Holden Beach Senior Citizens' meeting on Nov. 14. The group meets at 6 p.m. in the Lockwood Folly Community Building. A country dinner will be served.

All persons over 50 are welcome to join the group.

Club To Visit Museum

The Brierwood Ladies Club will tour the Museum of Coastal Carolina at Ocean Isle Beach on Monday, Nov. 14.

The group will meet in the Brierwood Golf Club parking lot at 7 p.m. and carpool to the museum for the tour, which will begin at 7:30.

The gift shop will be kept open for the group. A regular meeting will be held in the museum meeting room following the tour.

All female residents of Brierwood Estates are invited to attend.

Eagle Study Is Bird Club Topic

Tom Henson, naturalist with the N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission, will speak on the North Carolina bald eagle nesting study at the next meeting of the Brunswick Bird Club.

The clubs meets Wednesday, Nov. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of Atlantic Telephone Membership Corp. on N.C. 130 near Shallotte.

Anyone interested in nature and the environment is welcome. For more information, call Marcia Waring at 579-9474.

Historical Society Meets

Brunswick County Historical Society meets Monday, Nov. 14, at 7:30 p.m. at Concord United Methodist Church on N.C. 211 at Supply.

Member Johnnie Holden of Holden Beach will present the program, "Early Visitors to the Cape Fear."

Prospective members and others interested in local history are invited. For more information contact David Bennett, 287-6377.

Thank You!
