Administration Institute. She was 1992 Woman of the Year for Sky-Hy Chapter of the American Business Women's Association. She also serves on the board of Western North Carolina Financial Security Organization, United Way of Asheville and the March of Dimes.

The couple is living in Asheville.

No November Meeting For Stroke Support Group

The Stroke Support Group of Grand Strand Regional Medical Center has suspended its November meeting because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

The group is sponsored by the hospital to serve as an educational forum and support group both for those who have suffered a stroke and their relatives or caregivers. It is free and open to the public. Meetings usually take place on the fourth Wednesday of each month from 3-5 p.m. in the hospital's classroom.

For more information, call Bob Clancy at (803)249-6134.

'Healthy Holidays' Theme For Hospital Cooking Class

Loris Community Hospital will sponsor a "Healthy Holidays with Family and Friends" cooking class on Thursday, Nov. 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the Courtyard Cafe.

Linda Morrison, nutrition services director, and other staff members will present cooking demonstrations, and participants will receive recipes and hints and samples of prepared hors d'oeuvres, finger desserts and nonalcoholic beverages. Tickets are $4 each. To register or get more information, call the Community Relations Dept. of Loris Community Hospital at (803)756-9227.

Chinese Acrobats To Perform On Thalian Hall Main Stage

The Incredible Acrobats of China will bring history, pageantry and feats of balance and skill to the main stage of Thalian Hall on Saturday, Nov. 19.

Performances are scheduled for 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

The show from the People's Republic of China will be suitable for families. A narrator will relate the history of the ancient art, performed in China for more than 2,000 years, while the acrobats bring the feats to life on stage.

Directed by Li Jian, director of the Zhu Ma Dian Acrobatic Troupe, each part of "The Legend of the Chinese Acrobats" is authentically costumed, choreographed and scored according to its historical setting.

Among the feats to be demonstrated are the Pagoda of Bowls, juggling on a tall unicycle, wire-walking, flagpole juggling, barrel contortion and "Juggling of the Flying Trident by the Monkey King." Tickets are $5 per person and are available from the Center Box Office at 1-800-523-2820.
