

Man Gets 13 Days For Beating Woman, Breaking Her Arm

A 32-year-old Shallotte man who beat a woman and broke her arm was sentenced to the time he spent in jail awaiting trial after pleading guilty in Brunswick County District Court to a charge of assaulting a female.

Fred Dover of Evans Circle admitted his guilt in an assault against a woman who lives at the same address last Oct. 25. According to the arrest warrant, Dover was accused of "beating her about her face, head and body and breaking her right arm, requiring emergency room treatment."

Judge Napoleon Barefoot Jr. sentenced Dover to 45 days in jail and suspended all but 13 days of the sentence on the condition that Dover pay $462.50 toward the woman's medical bills, $60 court costs and $70 jail fees. He was given credit for time served and put on supervised probation for two years.

The judge ordered Dover "not to go back around, have any contact with, assault, harass or threaten the prosecuting witness for two years." He was also told to obtain a psychological evaluation "for his temper" within 30 days and to follow any recommended treatment.

Judge Barefoot presided over four days of district court in Bolivia last week. Assistant District Attorney Rick Green and Shallotte lawyer Roy Trest prosecuted. Marie Jordan served as courtroom clerk.
