

Battle Of Bentonville Is Round Table Topic

Cape Fear Civil War Round Table will present a program on the Battle of Bentonville at its Dec. 8 meeting at 7:30 p.m. in Room 101 of King Hall, UNC-Wilmington.

Mark Bradley of Raleigh, who is completing a definitive study of the battle, will present a lecture including a slide program detailing troop movements in the Battle of Bentonville. The 1865 battle, which has received little attention from scholars, took place in Johnston County in southeastern North Carolina and was the last large engagement of the Civil War in North Carolina.

The Round Table now has nearly 60 members. For more information, call George Slaton at (910)452-7448 (evenings) or write CFCWRT, Box 10535, Wilmington NC 28405-3757.

Still Time To Register For BCC Winter Classes

It's not too late to register for winter quarter curriculum classes at Brunswick Community College.

Prospective students can register through Friday, Dec. 2 at the main BCC campus north of Supply on College Road off U.S. 17.

Registration hours were 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 30, and Thursday, Dec. 1. Hours are 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. only Friday.

Late registration is being held in the multipurpose room downstairs in the Administration Building.

The ASSET assessment inventory assists students and their advisors in determining what courses students should select during registration. ASSET seminars were set for Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 2 p.m. and 5 p.m.; Thursday, Dec. 1, at 2 p.m.; and Friday, Dec. 2, at 9 a.m.

Students who plan to take the ASSET seminar should report to the Student Services Office in the Administration Building at least 10 minutes before the scheduled time.

For more information about the ASSET seminar or late registration, contact Student Services at 754-6900, 457-6329 or 343-0203.
