Redwine Picked For Peace Scholarship

Erin Elizabeth Redwine of Ocean Isle Beach has received a Peace College Special Merit Award and a Girl's State Recognition Award to attend the college for the 1995-96 academic year.

The awards, valued at $2,000 per year, recognize Erin for her high school academic record and for her school and community leadership. The scholarships are renewable for each year she attends Peace and maintains good academic standing.

Erin, a student at West Brunswick High School, is the daughter of David and Penny Redwine of Ocean Isle Beach.

Peace College in Raleigh is a two-year liberal arts and sciences college for women. It will begin offering baccalaureate degree programs in biology, business management, communications, human resources and liberal studies in fall 1995.

Mazucca Trains

Navy Airman Apprentice Laura M. Mazucca, daughter of William Mazucca of Sunset Beach, recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Center, Orlando, Fla.

MAZUCCA

During the eight-week program, Mazucca completed a variety of training which included classroom study, practical hands-on instruction and an emphasis on physical fitness. She learned naval customs, first aid, fire-fighting, water safety and survival, and safety skills required for working around ships and aircraft.

Recruits also received instruction on Navy core values and how they apply to personal and professional conduct.

Two Are Trained

Army Pfc. Robert A. Royall and Pvt. Joel D. Martin have completed basic training at Fort Jackson, Columbia, S.C.

During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, first aid and

Army history and traditions.

Royall is the son of Pauline E. and Charlie R. Benton of Win-nabow.

He is a 1994 graduate of South Brunswick High School.

Martin is the son of Stephen C. Martin of Hickory View Drive, Bolivia, and Dianne H. Barnardt of Richfield. He is a 1994 graduate of North Stanly High School in New London.

'Honey' Of A Volunteer

Charlene "Honey" Thornton of Holden Beach is in the Supply Elementary School spotlight for November.

As a volunteer she can be found working in the office, classroom and media center. She is the daughter of Charles and Shelba Thornton; her mother, teachers at Supply School. Honey sings in the choir at Sabbath Home Baptist Church, enjoys cross stitching and painting and likes to help people whenever she can, said a school news release.

THORNTON

On The Kitty Hawk

Navy Petty Officer 1st Class Robert A. Metcalf is midway through a six-month deployment to the Western Pacific and Indian oceans with the aircraft carrier USS Kitty Hawk, homeported in San Diego.

Metcalf is the son of Robert A. and Phyllis M. Metcalf of Southport. His ship is the lead ship of its battle group, consisting of an aircraft carrier with nine aircraft squadrons, three guided missile cruisers, a guided missile frigate, an ammunition ship, a replenishment oiler and two attack submarines.

Metcalf and the USS Kitty Hawk have participated in exercises with the Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force, Republic of Korea's Navy and Royal Singaporean Navy. They also joined with Marines from the Third Marine Expeditionary Force in an exercise which highlighted the capability of a carrier to be used as a launching platform for airborne amphibious assaults.

While deployed, Metcalf has visited Japan, Okinawa, South Korea, Hong Kong, Singapore, Guam and Malaysia.

The 1976 graduate of E. Berwin High School of Birmingham, Ala., joined the Navy in May 1976.
