Making A Joyful Noise

The Cedar Grove Choir delights Shallotte Christmas paradegoers last Saturday with a joyful noise. The choir is an annual favorite.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Blair Milligan Earns Peace Award

Blair Bennett Milligan of Ash has received the Girl's State Recognition Award to attend Peace College for the academic year 1995-96.

The Girl's State Recognition Award, valued at $1,500 per year, recognizes students for their high school academic record and leadership in school and community. The scholarship is renewable for each year the student attends Peace and maintains good academic standing.

Milligan, a student at West Brunswick High School, is the daughter of Cray and Wendy Milligan of Ash.

Peace College in Raleigh is a two-year liberal arts and sciences college for women.

Sale Promoted

Ricky C. Sale of Calabash, a member of National Guard Co. 3 1st Battalion (Mechanized) 120th Infantry in Shallotte, was promoted to the rank of Private E2 on Dec. 4 by Capt. Randy K. Pace, the unit commander.

PV2 Sale has been a member of the military for one year with 10 months in this unit.

In civilian life, he is employed by Wilson's as a stocker.

Tiny Tot Contestant

Jordan Lane, daughter of Billy and Donna Lane of Grissetown, competed in the Christmas Star Pageant to benefit the hearing-impaired children of Brunswick and New Hanover counties in Dec. 4 at Roland Grise Elementary School in Wilmington.

She was first runner-up in the Tiny Tot division of beauty and won the most photogenic award.

Deployment Over

Two local sailors recently returned from a six-month deployment to the Mediterranean and Adriatic seas and Persian Gulf with the aircraft carrier USS George Washington, the lead ship of the USS George Washington Task Group.

They are Navy Airman Apprentice Daniel H. Johnson, son of William L. and Deloise Johnson of Shallotte, and Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Donald W. Hair, son of Johnny R. Hair Sr. of Leland. Johnson is a 1993 graduate of West Brunswick High School. Hair is a 1985 graduate of North Brunswick High School.

They were among 5,000 sailors and Marines who completed the 51,000-mile voyage, which included duty off Bosnia-Herzegovina in the Adriatic Sea, and enforcing the "no-fly zone" over southern Iraq. They traveled twice from the Mediteranean Sea through the Suez Canal and Red Sea, then across the Indian Ocean into the Persian Gulf.

Their deployment began with participation in the 50th anniversary of D-Day commemoration with visits to England and France. They also visited Greece, Israel, Turkey and the United Arab Emirates during the trip.

Wyley Decorated

Army Spec. Manuel L. Wyley has been decorated with the Army Achievement Medal, which is awarded to soldiers for meritorious service, acts of courage or other outstanding accomplishments.

Wyley, an infantryman, is the son of Lois A. Bell and grandson of Mary R. Wyley, both of Bolivia. The specialist is a 1987 graduate of South Brunswick High School.

Prince Trains

Navy Seaman Recruit Steven W. Prince recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Ill.

Prince is a 1994 graduate of South Brunswick High School and is the son of Robert E. and Nina M.

Prince of Southport.

During the eight-week program, he completed a variety of training which included classroom study, practical hands-on instruction and an emphasis on physical fitness. He learned naval customs, first aid, fire-fighting, water safety and survival and a variety of safety skills required for working around ships and aircraft.

Earns Divinity Degree

The Rev. Jeff Crabtree, formerly of Holden Beach, has been awarded his doctor of divinity degree from Emmanuel Baptist University, Connelly Springs.

Crabtree is pastor of Brookwood Baptist Church in Morganton. He is the son of Richard and Jackie Crabtree of Holden Beach and is a graduate of West Brunswick High School.

Named To 'Who's Who'

Christina Marie Callendar, daughter of Michael Callendar of Shallotte and Teresa Torres of California, has been named to "Who's Who Among American High School Student" for 1993-94.

Students are recognized based on achievements in academics, athlet-
