

Urologist To Speak At Seminar

As part of the "You and Your Health" monthly seminar series, Grand Strand Regional Medical Center is sponsoring a seminar on male sexual dysfunction and impotence on Thursday, Jan. 12, from 6:30-7:30 p.m. at the Grand Strand Senior Center, 21st Ave. N., North Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Guest speaker will be Neal D. Shore, M.D., board certified urologist on the hospital's medical staff. He will discuss impotence and other types of sexual dysfunction and offer treatment options.

Dr. Shore is a 1984 graduate of Duke University Medical School. He is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons, a diplomate of the American Board of Urology, and a member of both the American Urologic Association and the American Medical Association.

The seminar is free and open to the public. Reservations are necessary and can be made by calling the hospital's Community Health Services Department at (803)650-6830.

Area Hospital To Sponsor Child, Infant CPR Class

Grand Strand Regional Medical Center in Myrtle Beach will sponsor a community Child and Infant CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) class on Tuesday, Jan. 17, from 6-10 p.m. in the hospital's classroom.

The class will cover both child and infant CPR and obstructed airway management. There is a $10 fee per person for the class, which is open to anyone interested in learning the life-saving techniques. Registration is required by calling the hospital's Community Health Services Department at (803)650-6830.

VFD Dinner To Be All-You-Can-Eat

Sunset Harbor/Zion Hill Volunteer Fire Department will host an "all-you-can-eat" dinner on Saturday, Dec. 31, from noon until the food runs out.

For $5 a plate, you can choose from a large variety of meats and vegetables; the price includes beverage and homemade desserts.

The last turkey shoot of the season will begin at 6 p.m. There also will be a drawing for a 12-gauge Winchester shotgun and homemade quilt.

The food was donated and prepared by Kay and Lewis Smith.

The fire department is on Sunset Harbor Road off N.C. 211.
