The amendment, calling for the tenure of office to be increased to four years instead of two, was carried by 81 ayes against 28 nayes. Thus the Mayor and Board will begin the new terms for four years.

There was little interest in the election this year. The Mayor and the present Board had no opposition. However, one voter did cast a ballot for E. L. Reed as an independent candidate.

The tabulation of ballots showed that Mayor Darden received 110 votes; Commissioners Hardcastle, 110; Gregory, 109; Berry, 107, and Harris, 107. One ballot was mismarked and was therefore thrown

Mrs. B. G. Koonce served as Judge of the election board, and Miss Virginia White and Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips were clerks.

know "what you are looking for." He told the Seniors that following the war, many new opportunities would present themselves and that each one of them should be prepared to take his place in society and take adtantage of these opportunities. He stated that as he entered the high school building he noticed the school's service flag, carrying 193 service stars, including one gold star and two silver stars, representing one former student who had died in service and two that were missing; also that the school through sale of war bonds had received honors of purchasing 17 jeeps. He told the group this was a record to be proud of and that these former students were now serving the nation in order that our way of life might be preserved for them and youths of the future. He told the Seniors that we here in America should appreciate Demotions as they are in Europe today where practically all food and other necessitities of life are nil. "We should," he continued, "appreciate the homes, schools and food we have

The coal miners' strike was averted at the last minute on Monday, when a 15-day truce was agreed upon by John L. Lewis and coal operators. President Roosevelt, in a message to the miners Sunday night, called upon them to return to work in the interest of the war. The Government has assumed control over all mines and they are now under the direction of Secretary Ickes.

The OPA announced this week that it will soon release dollar and cents ceiling prices on groceries. It has been reported that these ceilings will be placed on every item a housewife will buy. Beginning the system, the prices will apply only to some 150 cities, but will later be placed in effect throughout the nation.

Prominent Farmer Dies At Home In Bethel Township

J. E. Eaves, 77, prominent farmer of Bethel Township, died at his home Friday morning at 9:50 o'clock, after being ill but a short time.

Funeral services, under the direction of the Lynch Funeral Home, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Bethel Baptist Church by the Rev. J. T. Byrum, assisted by the Rev. W. O. Henderson.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mirah Eaves; two sons, J. B. and L. E. Eaves of Norfolk, Va.; four daughters, Mrs. D. M. Jones of Elizabeth City, Mrs. H. M. Prophater of Cincinnatti, Ohio, Mrs. F. A. Arnold of Bristol, Tenn., and Miss Adelaide Eaves of Hertford; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. Eaves was a native of Tyrrell County, but had been a resident of Bethel Township, Perquimans County, for the past 42 years. He had been in declining health for the past three years and was confined to his bed one week. Four members from the Elizabeth City Christian Church choir sang "Will the Circle be Unbroken," "Last Mile of the Way" and "Face to Face."

Pallbearers were: E. Y. Berry, Howard Pitt, Willie Lane, Reuben Stallings, Charles White and Ambrose Proctor.

Schedules Drawn For Observation Tower

Howard Dawkins, assistant chief observer for the Hertford Observation Post, stated today that complete weekly schedules for duty at the posthave been drawn up and mailed to residents of Hertford, notifying them of the hours they are expected to serve during each week.

Mr. Dawkins expressed his appreciation for the cooperation given thus far this week and hopes each person will continue to do such a good job. The schedules were so arranged that three persons were assigned for duty during each watch. This provides that if one can not serve that particular day, there will be at least two on duty. The officer said each person is responsible for his watch, and if he finds he can not be on duty, he should find some person to take his place.

He said that an attempt had been made to list each resident of the town for duty, but if any person failed to receive notice when to report, that person is asked to leave his name at Simon's Store.

Also, it is hoped that residents of Winfall will volunteer to help man this post, and it is requested that those desiring to help will leave their names at Simon's.
