government." Emphasizing that we must be careful about using such terms as "democracy" without understanding what is really meant by them, the Chaplain continued: "While political democracy is a relatively late development in the history of mankind, the roots of that conception are thousands of years old. They lie in the feeling of the ancient Jewish people that all men, being common partners in a covenant between their nation and God, are equal in the sight of God. When Jesus broke the narrow partisan nature of the Jewish religion, the notion of equality was extended on a universal basis; and we have for the first time the idea of the essential unity of the human race, and the inherent dignity of every individual member of the human race. The underlying basis of our political theory of democracy is therefore a moral and religious one," added the Chaplain. "Our democracy will not survive unless we recognize this religious foundation and strengthen it.

"Democracy confers a great boon upon mankind. It says to him that man is created in the image of God, that he is entitled to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that liberty under the law is the inherent right of every citizen.

But since privilege always carries with it responsibilities, we must take care that the privileges which we claim for ourselves must be extended to all peoples. That is the serious and tremendous task which confronts American democracy today. Some definite solution for the world-wide problem of race must be found. Economic democracy must be developed, with a man for every job, and a job for every man. Minority groups of every sort, be they racial, political, social, economic, or religious, must be protected; and the subject peoples of empire must be given a hand in their own government, just as soon as that becomes possible."

Citing the now famous "four freedoms" indicated in the Roosevelt-Churchill Atlantic Charter, Chaplain Sanders added: "The four freedoms must be offered, not only to the nations and peoples of the Atlantic world, but to those of the Pacific world as well. Ultimately all the nations of earth must be bound together by the sacred principles of democracy into one great confederation, pledged each to the mutual welfare of the other.

"If the task seems too stupendous," concluded Chaplain Sanders, "we must remember that all the other great forward steps in history have started so: the forcing of Magna Charta at Runnymede; the Declaring of Independence by a few weeks, isolated mutually jealous colonies of the British crown; the adoption of a Constitution, at once definitive and at the same time flexible enough to last through the vicissitudes of time. Regardless of the size of the task, we are faced with the dilemma: either we choose to accept the responsibilities, or we stand to lose the privileges which democracy confers upon its followers. The choice is for you and me to make."

Activities at the club are now in full swing; however, Eldred Kuisenga club director, announced this week the program committee needed many more Junior Hostesses to serve at the club and issued a request that the young ladies of the county come to the USO and sign up to serve in this capacity. The duties of this group will be listed in a bulletin being issued this week, Mr. Kuisenga stated.

IN MEMORIAM

In memoriam of Allen U. Winslow, who departed this life three years ago today, May 23, 1941.

You left us, Granddaddy, three years ago today,

To journey on the upward way. Our hearts were filled with tears and pain, To keep you here was all in vain.

So sweet you were and oh, so kind, No other one in this world we can find, To fill your place. You were the best,

But you have gone to Heaven to rest. Granddaddy, you cared for each of us so dear,

You fed and rocked us whenever you were near, You played as a child would, upon the floor, But without you, Granddaddy, we cannot play as before.

We miss your smile and your sweet caress. Your love, Granddaddy, was always best.

As we grow up, we will pray like you For Jesus to take us to Heaven, too.

Grandchildren.

RALPH McDONALD For Governor

RALPH W. McDONALD

SAFE

AND

SOBER

HIS

POLICY

IS

SOUND

Ralph McDonald says that if he is nominated and elected Governor, he will recommend to the General Assembly of North Carolina, at its 1945 session, the complete repeal of the Sales Tax, which can be done from surplus currently accumulating without a State Tax on land.

Citizens of Perquimans County paid in Sales Tax for the last fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, the huge sum of $74,321.00.

Let's take it off while we don't need it. If we have another 1933, the General Assembly can put our dear "emergency" sales tax back on the books.

SOME OF THE THINGS HE STANDS FOR:

- All-out support of the war and peace efforts.
- Full provision for returning service men and women.
- Positive measures to increase farm income.
- Educational opportunities on the highest possible level.
- A major post-war road building program.
- Full post-war employment.
- Better representation for farmers and women on all State Boards.
- Honest and capable State appointive officials.
- Firm Promotion of temperance and sobriety.
- Payment of entire General Fund debt with surplus funds.
- Elimination of Sales Tax.
- NO STATE TAX ON LAND.
- A safely balanced State budget.

WHAT CERTAIN LEADERS WHO OPPOSED RALPH McDONALD IN 1936 SAY OF HIM NOW:

"SOBER, CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN"

"I enthusiastically supported Hon. Clyde Hoey in both the 1936 primaries. When the result was announced, Dr. McDonald, as the defeated candidate, accepted a verdict recorded at the polls. He took his licking like a man and rendered full support to the ticket in the general election, making speeches in nearly half the counties. Since that time his party record, his views on public affairs and his personal life justify the support of those who opposed him in 1936. If for no other reasons, I would support Dr. McDonald because of his loyalty to and support of our Party; because nearly half of the members (214 414) of the Democratic Party in the State have evidenced their desire that he be Governor of North Carolina, and because he is a high-toned, sober, Christian gentleman."—Hon. Chas. G. Rose, of Fayetteville, former Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, former President N. C. Bar Association.

"NEED SYMPATHETIC GOVERNMENT"

"I have carefully read the speeches and statements of the two candidates for Governor, have observed them in their public careers for the past few years, and have come to the conclusion that I shall vote for Ralph McDonald for many reasons. As a business man, I have confidence that his administration will be sound. There will be many readjustments arising from the post-war period. The principal problems of North Carolina will be problems of how best to meet the needs, the hopes and aspirations of the average people of this State. We will, therefore, need as Governor, a man who is sympathetic and who will be better able to translate the thinking of the people into governmental action. I believe Ralph McDonald to be such a man."—Hon. L. Lee Gravely, eminent business man and tobaccoist of Rocky Mount.

"SAFE, SANE AND SOBER"

"I like the fine fitness of the man for the office. Measured by every standard, he seems to me to be qualified to become a worthy successor of that fine line of noble men who have graced this high office for the past forty-four years. I believe that in him the Democratic party can offer to the people of the State as fine a leader as they have been accustomed to put forth and one who I believe is safe, sane and sober, studious and statesmanlike, and one who will not only lead the party but the whole people of North Carolina into that great advancement and progress which should mark our State and its performance in the tremendously important years that lie immediately ahead.

"I am expecting the people of North Carolina to cast a tremendous majority vote for Dr. Ralph McDonald for Governor."—E. N. Simms, Sr., Raleigh.
