IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dearest brother, Cpl. Johnnie Clyde Elliott, who was killed October 27, 1944.

Two just one year ago today
That you left us and passed away,
To a far better land than is here,
To a peace of eternal rest, my dear.

While often on my bed I lie,
And look up into the clear, blue sky,
I think of things we used to do
And think of how I miss you, too.

Forgotten . . . brother, you will never be
Not by any one—nor by me,
The house seems empty with you away,
It's only memories which with us stay.

—Your loving sister, Thelma.
