WALKER-KNOWLES VOWS SPOKEN IN METHODIST CHURCH stripe, black shoes and gloves, with (Continued from Page One)

bridesmaids were bronze chrysanthe-

Honorary bridesmaids were Misses Ruth Elliott, Janet Murray and Virginia White of Hertford; Dr. Louise Payne of Raleigh, and Mesdames R. L. Reed of Covington, Va.; John

Lieut.-Comdr. E. V. Cain of Atlantic City, N. J., was the bridegroom's best man, and the ushers were Lieut. Joseph H. McGlothlin, of Atlantic City, N. J.; Lieut.-Comdr. R. T. Brinn Hertford; Lieut.-Comdr. Gordon W. Smith, Washington, D. C., and Eldon Winslow of Hertford.

The bride's mother wore a gown of black crepe trimmed with sequins and elbow-length gloves, her flowers being a corsage of purple orchids.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Robert Lee Knowles and the late Mr. Knowles of Hertford. She attended Greensboro College and did graduate work at the University of North Carolina. For the past three years she has served as superintendent of public welfare in Perquimans County.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barry Walker of Bellingham, Washington. He attended the University of Minnesota, where he was a member of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. He served with the U. S. Navy throughout the war, the greater portion of the time being in the Atlantic theatre. He is at present stationed with the Bureau of Aeronautics in Washington, D. C., where the couple will make their home.

Immediately after the ceremony the mother of the bride entertained at a reception at her home on Market Street. The entire lower floor of the house was decorated with flowers, ferns and autumn leaves. In the reception hall and living room there were multi-colored fall flowers with bright autumn leaves. A color scheme of white and green was featured in the dining room, where white roses and fern were used. The dining table was covered with an imported lace cloth. The centerpiece of snow-white roses was flanked by white tapers in silver candelabra. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarvis received the guests at the front door, and they were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. T. S. White. Mrs. R. T. Brinn and Mrs. R. T. White presided over the bride's book. In the gift room Mrs. R. M. Riddick and Mrs. W. H. Lynch received. Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Byrd

For travel, the bride wore a grey

NO

PROBLEM

FOR YOUR

FORD

when you bring

it "HOME" for

FORD service

DRIVE IN TODAY FOR

* ANTI-FREEZE

LUBRICATION

SEE YOUR

* BRAKES

* CHAINS * HEATER

* WINTER

wool suit-dress, with Kelly green pin Kelly green hat and purse. Her flowers were an orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple motored to Daytona Beach, Florida, where they will take a plane for Havana, Cuba.

The bride has been extensively entertained since the announcement of her engagement. Among those entertaining for the bride-elect were Miss Broughton, Jr., Newport News, Va.; Nancy Darden, Miss Ruth Elliott, R. P. Daniels, Elizabeth City; Rex Mrs. S. P. Jessup and Mrs. Willis Mrs. S. P. Jessup and Mrs. Willia Stephenson, Raleigh; J. P. Perry, Jr., Jessup; the employees of the offices of the Court House, where Mrs Walker's office was located; Mrs. R. South Hill, Va.; Miss Kate Blanchard; Mrs. W. H. Pitt; Mrs. R. P. Daniels of Elizabeth City; Mrs. R. L. Reed of Covington, Va., and Mrs. Rex Stephenson of Raleigh.

Broughton, Jr., entertained at a cake cutting following the rehearsal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Byrd entertained at a bridal dinner at the Hotel Hertford on Saturday evening.

MARY TOWE'S SHOWER MISS KNOWLES, BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Jessie Lee Harris was hostess to the Mary Towe Missionary Circle when they met at her home on Grubb Street Wednesday evening, November 13, at 8 o'clock to compliment Miss Grace Knowles, bride-elect. The living room was made attractive for the occasion with beautiful cut flowers.

Mrs. Lawrence Towe, president, presided over the business meeting, which opened with prayer. Miss Ruth Elliott, secretary, called the oll and read the minutes. Mrs. Robrt Brinn, a new member, was welomed into the circle. Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Martin Towe and Mrs. Elton committee to recommend officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Walter Edwards gave an interesting review of the Mission Study Book, "These Moving Times."

After the benediction, Miss Grace Knowles acknowledged the beautiful gifts presented her by the hostess when she brought them into the living room in a very unique manner. Mrs. Riley Monds kept the gift reg-

During the social hour, Mrs. Harris assisted by Mrs. Frank McGoogan, served a delicious sweet course to the members and the following visitors, who came especially at this time for the Walker-Knowles wedding: Mrs. K. Krosch, Chicago, Illinois; Mrs. W. B. Byrd, Bunnlevel, N. C.;; Mrs. Roy L. Reed, Covington, Va., and Mrs. Marion Riddick III, Buckaroo Beach, Va.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Mrs. R. P. Daniels of Elizabeth City delightfully entertained at a party honoring Miss Grace Knowles, bride-elect, on Friday afternoon at her home in Elizabeth City.

The house was decorated in fall lowers.

Those attending from Hertford were Miss Knowles, honoree, Mrs. Rex Stephenson of Raleigh, Miss Ruth Elliott, Mrs. Marion Riddick, Mrs. Willis Jessup and Miss Helen Mae White of Hertford, and Mrs. Roy Reed of Covington, Va., and Mrs. D. K. Krosch of Chicago, III.

HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Tommy Jessup was hostes to her bridge club Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at her home on Front Street. The house was beautifully decorated with fall flowers. Those enjoying the evening were Mesdames coca-colas.

INDIANS-SCOTLAND NECK BATTLE TO 6-6 TIE Continued From Page One

their return to the field from the last M. Kiddick and Mrs. Jack Barker, of half of the final game. Scotland anniversary of his services to the Neck kicked and Chester Winslow re- church as steward and Sunday School ceived and made a beautiful 50 yard punt return to the Scotland Neck 20 yard line, Symons made 7 yards off as the opening selection. Following Miss Helen Mae White entertained and the 11 yard line. Symons then at open house prior to the buffet faded back and Chester Winslow cited a beautiful poem, "Growing made a beautiful catch for the International Control on November 15th and Mrs. John dinns' touchdown Extra point fail. on November 15th, and Mrs. John diang' touchdown. Extra point fail-their aerial attack and completed City was hostess at the delightful soseveral passes good for gains down cial hour which followed, and was asto the Hertford 35 yard line, Scot- sisted by Mrs. C. P. Quincy, Mrs. G. land Neck then fumbled and Jordan W. Jackson and Mrs. R. F. Bundy. 3 yards and Boyce made 4 through Mrs. Garrett, was cut and served center. Winslow's pass was incomplete and Smith kicked to Scotland Neck. Leggett made 9 through the center, a pass was incomplete. Allsbrook made a first down and another pass by the Scotland Neckers was incomplete. Leggett passed to Alls brook for another first down. Leggett passed to Winborne for 35 yards down to Hertford's 18 yard line. Symons then intercepted a Scotland Neck pass, but a fumble lost 6 yards. Smith kicked out and Scotland Neck returned the ball to the Indians' 24 yard line. A beautiful run by Winborne carried the ball to the 2 yard line. Leggett scored for Scotland Hurdle were chosen as a nominating Neck to tie up the game. Extra point was blocked by Bobby Jordan, leaving the score in a 646 deadlock. Scotland Neck went down to the In-> game ended still tied. PREACHING AT WOODLAND A special invitation is extended to all to be present Sunday morning at dians 6 yard line on passes as the

Henry Clay Stokes, Charles E. Johnson, Henry Clay Sullivan, Jack Kanson, Henry Clay Sullivan, Jack Kanson, G. W. Barbee, Charles M. Williford, Misses Mary Sumner and Helen Orphanage Day program and a special effort is being made to raise all Mrs. Henry Clay Stokes won high of the orphanage apportionment for the year. Also the new pastor, the Rev. J. D. Stott, will preach at 12 o'clock. A large congregation is desired.

Scotland Neck then opened with Mrs. Cecil Garrett of Elizabeth

In behalf of Mr. Lewis' friends, C. You" was sung.

AMATEUR PROGRAM

WHY PAY MORE?

ROBERSON'S DRUG STORE

BRICKS

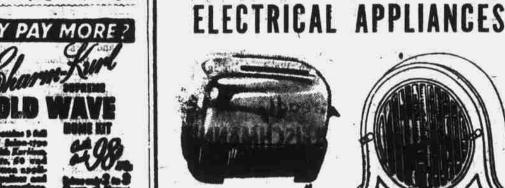

HONOR CHURCH STEWARD

On Friday night, November 15, W. W. Lewis was honored by a host of friends at Oak Grove Church, Chapanoke, the occasion being the 50th tackle, Winslow made a first down this, J. S. McNider gave a most ingave a short talk which was enjoyed recovered for Hertford. Ward made The huge cake, baked and given by with ice cream and nuts to all

> P. Quincy presented him with a love gift and in conclusion "God Be With

An amateur program will be given

TOASTERS . . . for making nice crisp toast for your break-'

HOT PLATES . . . just the thing for light cooking.

ELECTRIC RAZORS . . . all RADIOS . . . be sure to see new models. Just what Dad our models before selecting a new radio. would like to have.

days.

ELECTRIC HEATERS . . . to take the chill off rooms on cool

ELECTRIC IRONS . . . we have several models.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED TWO

CARLOADS OF BRICKS

SEE US FOR YOUR NEEDS

WHILE THEY LAST

Hertford Hardware & Supply Company

"Trade Here and Bank the Difference"

MODERNIZE YOUR HOME

WITH THE BEST

HERTFORD, N. C.

Electric Bottle Warmers — Extension Cords

Hertford Hardware & Supply Company

"TRADE HERE AND BANK THE DIFFERENCE" HERTFORD, N. C.

J. Broughton & Bro.

Z. A. Harris Grocery Roberson's Drug Store

Santa's Back At Blanchard's Again This Season We Have a Complete Line of Gifts For Every Member of the Family. Be Wise—Make Your Selections Early This Year and Get the Best

13 W. 12 (0) 5 W. 15

Right Prices

"Blanchard's" Since 1812,