Corn Contest Plans Announced

First prize, $100; second prize, $80; third prize, $60; fourth prize, $40; fifth prize, $25.

The Foundation Seed producers offer a free banquet and entertainment at Raleigh in the fall of 1948 for the highest producer on one acre of land in each of the following groups for each county in North Carolina: (1) Adult farmer, (2) 4-H Club member, (3) FHA member. In this contest the contestants must plant at least one acre of a recommended hybrid. No other restrictions on the method of production. The Foundation Seed Producers also offer a $100 war bond to the highest producer on one acre in the State, and the same to the winner in each of the three areas in the State.

One thousand dollars is offered by the State Fair Association for the highest amount over 200 bushels produced by a farmer in the State.

Farmers can use their county contest acres to compete in the State contest.
