

Bethel Ruritans Entertain Ladies

The members of the Bethel Ruritan Club entertained their wives at the first anniversary banquet of the club at the Hotel Hertford Wednesday evening.

Clarence W. Phillips, president, called the meeting to order. The club members and guests sang America and the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag led by District Governor Elgin White of Elizabeth City. I. C. Yagel, chaplain of the club, gave the invocation.

Roy S. Chappell, vice president of the club, gave the address of welcome and Mrs. E. T. Phillips responded for the ladies.

The president then recognized the guests present.

District Governor White spoke briefly to the group and said: "One year ago I helped organize the Bethel Ruritan Club, meeting with a group at that time in the Bethel Baptist Church. I saw the seed sown and it makes me very happy to see what you have accomplished in little over a year. You have a real Ruritan Club, may God bless you, keep up the good work."

Humorous entertainment was furnished by Charlie Ward, past president of the club, program chairman for the banquet.

In a cracker eating contest Mrs. Joe White won first prize, a pair of nylon stockings. Participating in the contest were Mrs. Johnnie Phillips, Mrs. E. T. Phillips, Mrs. Ernest Long, Mrs. Irvin Long, Mrs. Wade Jordan, Mrs. Joe White and Mrs. Edgar Long. Members of the group were given four crackers each to eat, and the first one finishing was to signal with a whistle. Mrs. Joe White managed a dry whistle first and was followed by Mrs. Irvin Long, Mrs. Ernest Long and Mrs. Wade Jordan. Mrs. Ward then presented the group with a small gift neatly wrapped in white paper and tied with ribbon for being the first four to finish with the crackers.

Upon opening the packages the ladies nearly fainted to see four more crackers, each already as dry as a powder house. However, they were all good sports and the program chairman gave them a break and ruled that the first one to finish one of the crackers would be the winner of the nylons. Mrs. Joe White was the first again to whistle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Long were the participants in a banana eating contest. Each was blind-folded and switched around until they didn't know who they were feeding the banana to. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Evans were the winners in this contest, and were presented a very lovely and useful gift.

Following the entertainment by Ward, prizes were awarded the ladies whose names were drawn from a basket.

Guest speaker, Peter Carlton, of the Chamber of Commerce of Edenton, spoke to the group, presenting a highly entertaining talk interspersed with humor, entering into a more serious vein at intervals.

Perquimans FFA Wins District Honors Sat.

The Perquimans County High School FFA parliamentary procedure team won top honors and took first place in the District Parliamentary Procedure Contest held at Tarboro on Saturday, May 15, in competition with seven other teams in District One, which covers most of Eastern North Carolina. This achievement entitles the Perquimans FFA team to take part in the State Parliamentary Procedure Contest to be held at N. C. State College, Raleigh, on June 15, and to compete for the $200 prize to be given to the State winning team. The boys are very happy over their achievement, and it reflects much credit on their ability and training. They were coached and trained by G. C. Buck, teacher of agriculture. The members of the Parliamentary Procedure team are: President, Dolan Winslow; vice president, Bob Layden; secretary, Leon Lane; treasurer, Trafton Phillips, and reporter, John Ayscue.

H. S. Students Elect New Council Officers

Students of Perquimans High School elected officers of the school's student council at an election held at the school last week. Betty Ruth Chappell was elected president of the council, Ronald Butt, vice president; Ethel Frances Elliott, secretary; Anne Hollowell, treasurer and Bob Layden, sergeant-at-arms.

The students conducted the election along regular political lines with candidates for the various offices making campaign speeches and the balloting was handled by student appointed election boards.

IN MEMORIAM
In sweet remembrance of our father and husband, Allen U. Winslow, who passed away on May 22, 1941:

You bid me no a last farewell,
You said good-bye to none,
A dear heart had ceased to beat
And suddenly you were gone.

And we who have known and loved you,
Whose passing has brought bitter tears,
Will cherish your memory always
To brighten the drifting years.
Your Loving Wife and Children.
